

TIMELY TRANSITIONS

Galatians 3:24-4:11

Using one main analogy, Paul describes the transition from works of the Law to faith in Christ historically in the program of God and also in our own lives personally, with the cross as the turning point for that transition. We're going from works to faith, and Christ on the cross is the turning point historically and personally.

I. THE ANALOGY USED CULTURALLY.

❖ Pedagogue = _____ or _____.

II. THE ANALOGY USED HISTORICALLY.

A. The Law led _____ Christ. (3:24)

B. The Law led _____ Christ. (3:25; 4:4-5)

III. THE ANALOGY USED PERSONALLY.

A. All believers grew up under a _____. (3:24-25)

B. All believers have _____ Christ. (3:27-28)

C. All believers are _____ with Christ. (3:29; 4:1-7)

D. All believers are _____ of God. (4:5-7)

❖ Apply grace to the _____ of life. (4:9)

IV. MAJOR APPLICATIONS:

A. Come back to _____. (4:9)

B. Come back to your _____. (4:6)

TIMELY TRANSITIONS

Galatians 3:24-4:11

Using one main analogy, Paul describes the transition from works of the Law to faith in Christ historically in the program of God and also in our own lives personally, with the cross as the turning point for that transition. We're going from works to faith, and Christ on the cross is the turning point historically and personally.

I. THE ANALOGY USED CULTURALLY.

❖ Pedagogue = _____ or _____.

II. THE ANALOGY USED HISTORICALLY.

A. The Law led _____ Christ. (3:24)

B. The Law led _____ Christ. (3:25; 4:4-5)

III. THE ANALOGY USED PERSONALLY.

A. All believers grew up under a _____. (3:24-25)

B. All believers have _____ Christ. (3:27-28)

C. All believers are _____ with Christ. (3:29; 4:1-7)

D. All believers are _____ of God. (4:5-7)

❖ Apply grace to the _____ of life. (4:9)

IV. MAJOR APPLICATIONS:

A. Come back to _____. (4:9)

B. Come back to your _____. (4:6)