MISSION TRIP

JUNE 11-14

CENTENNIAL, WYOMING

A person wearing white, textured robes is kneeling on a sandy floor. They are holding a large, dark brown earthenware jug with a wide opening, pouring a stream of clear water into a shallow, wide, brown ceramic basin. The water is splashing as it hits the basin. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

SERVANTS, LIKE THE SAVIOR

THE GOSPEL OF MARK

I. THE VISION: Bearing fruit through service.

deep roots. bearing fruit.

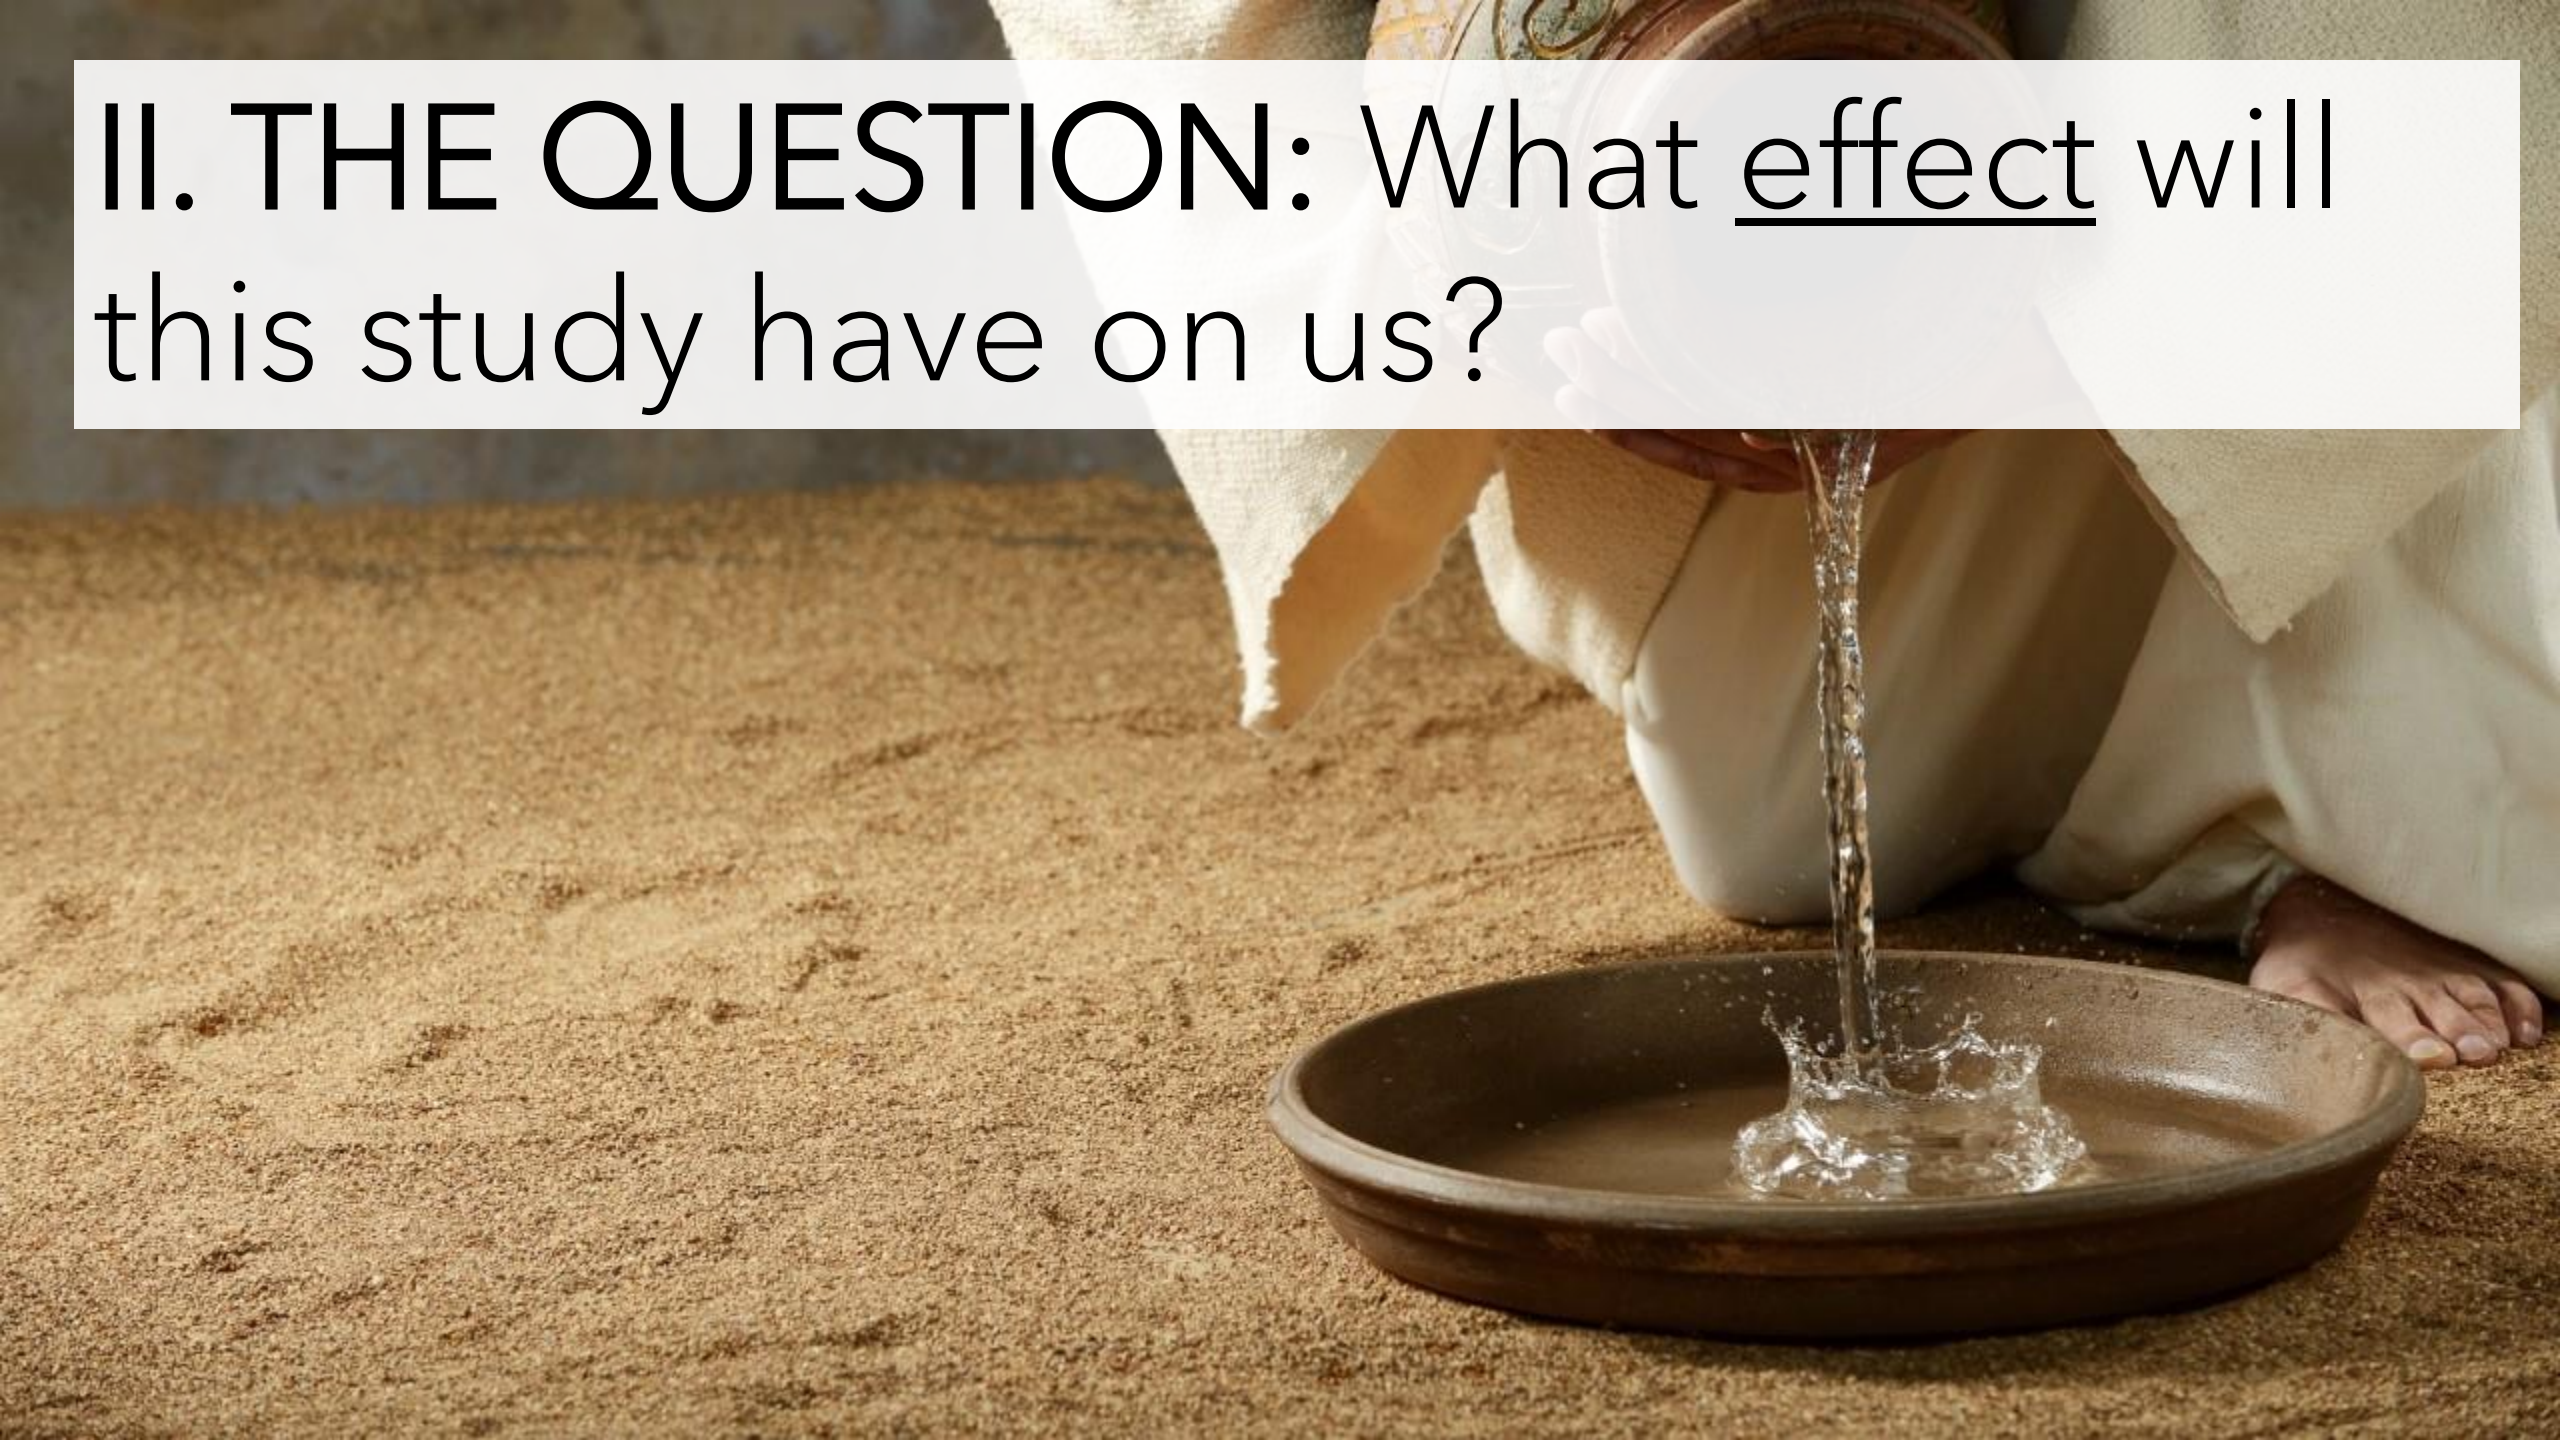

A person wearing white robes is kneeling on a sandy surface, pouring water from a large, ornate earthenware jug into a shallow, dark brown basin. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a splash in the basin. The background is a textured, light-colored wall.

❖ Mark emphasizes Christ as Servant.

“Immediately”
or “at once” is used 42 times.

II. THE QUESTION: What effect will this study have on us?

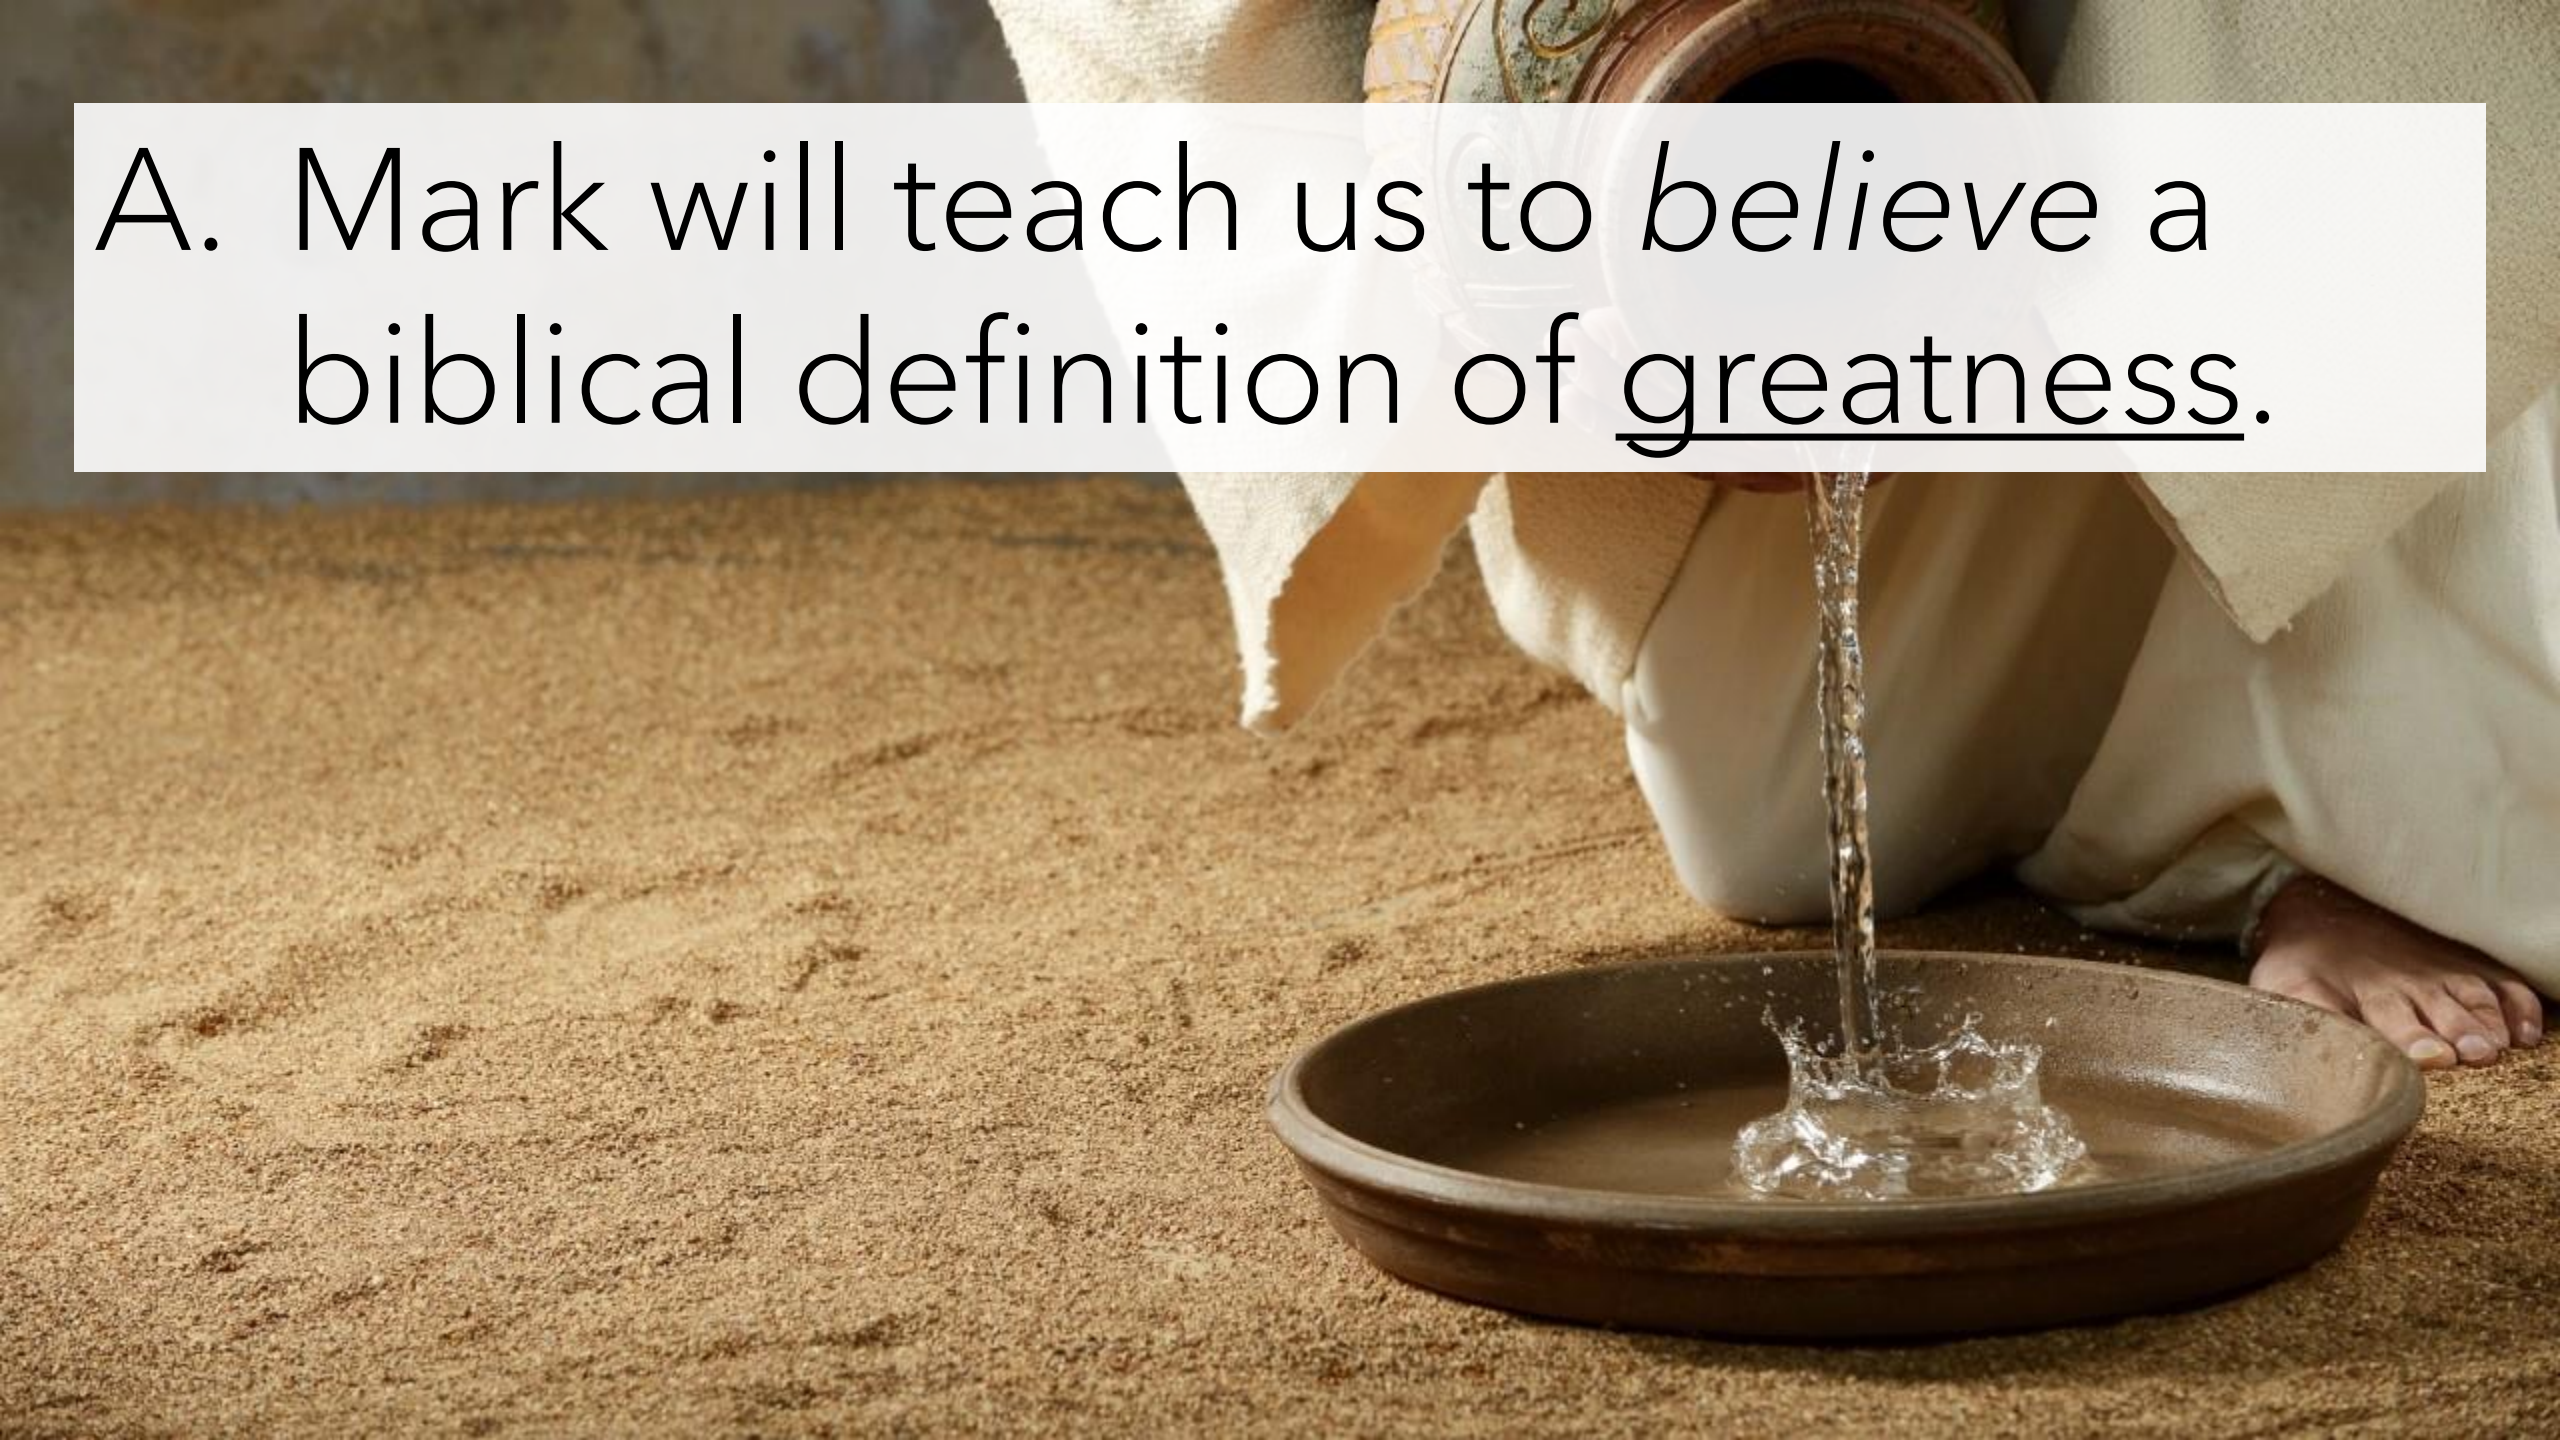

A person's hands are shown pouring water from a clear glass pitcher into a white ceramic bowl. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash. The background is a textured, light-colored surface, possibly a table or countertop.

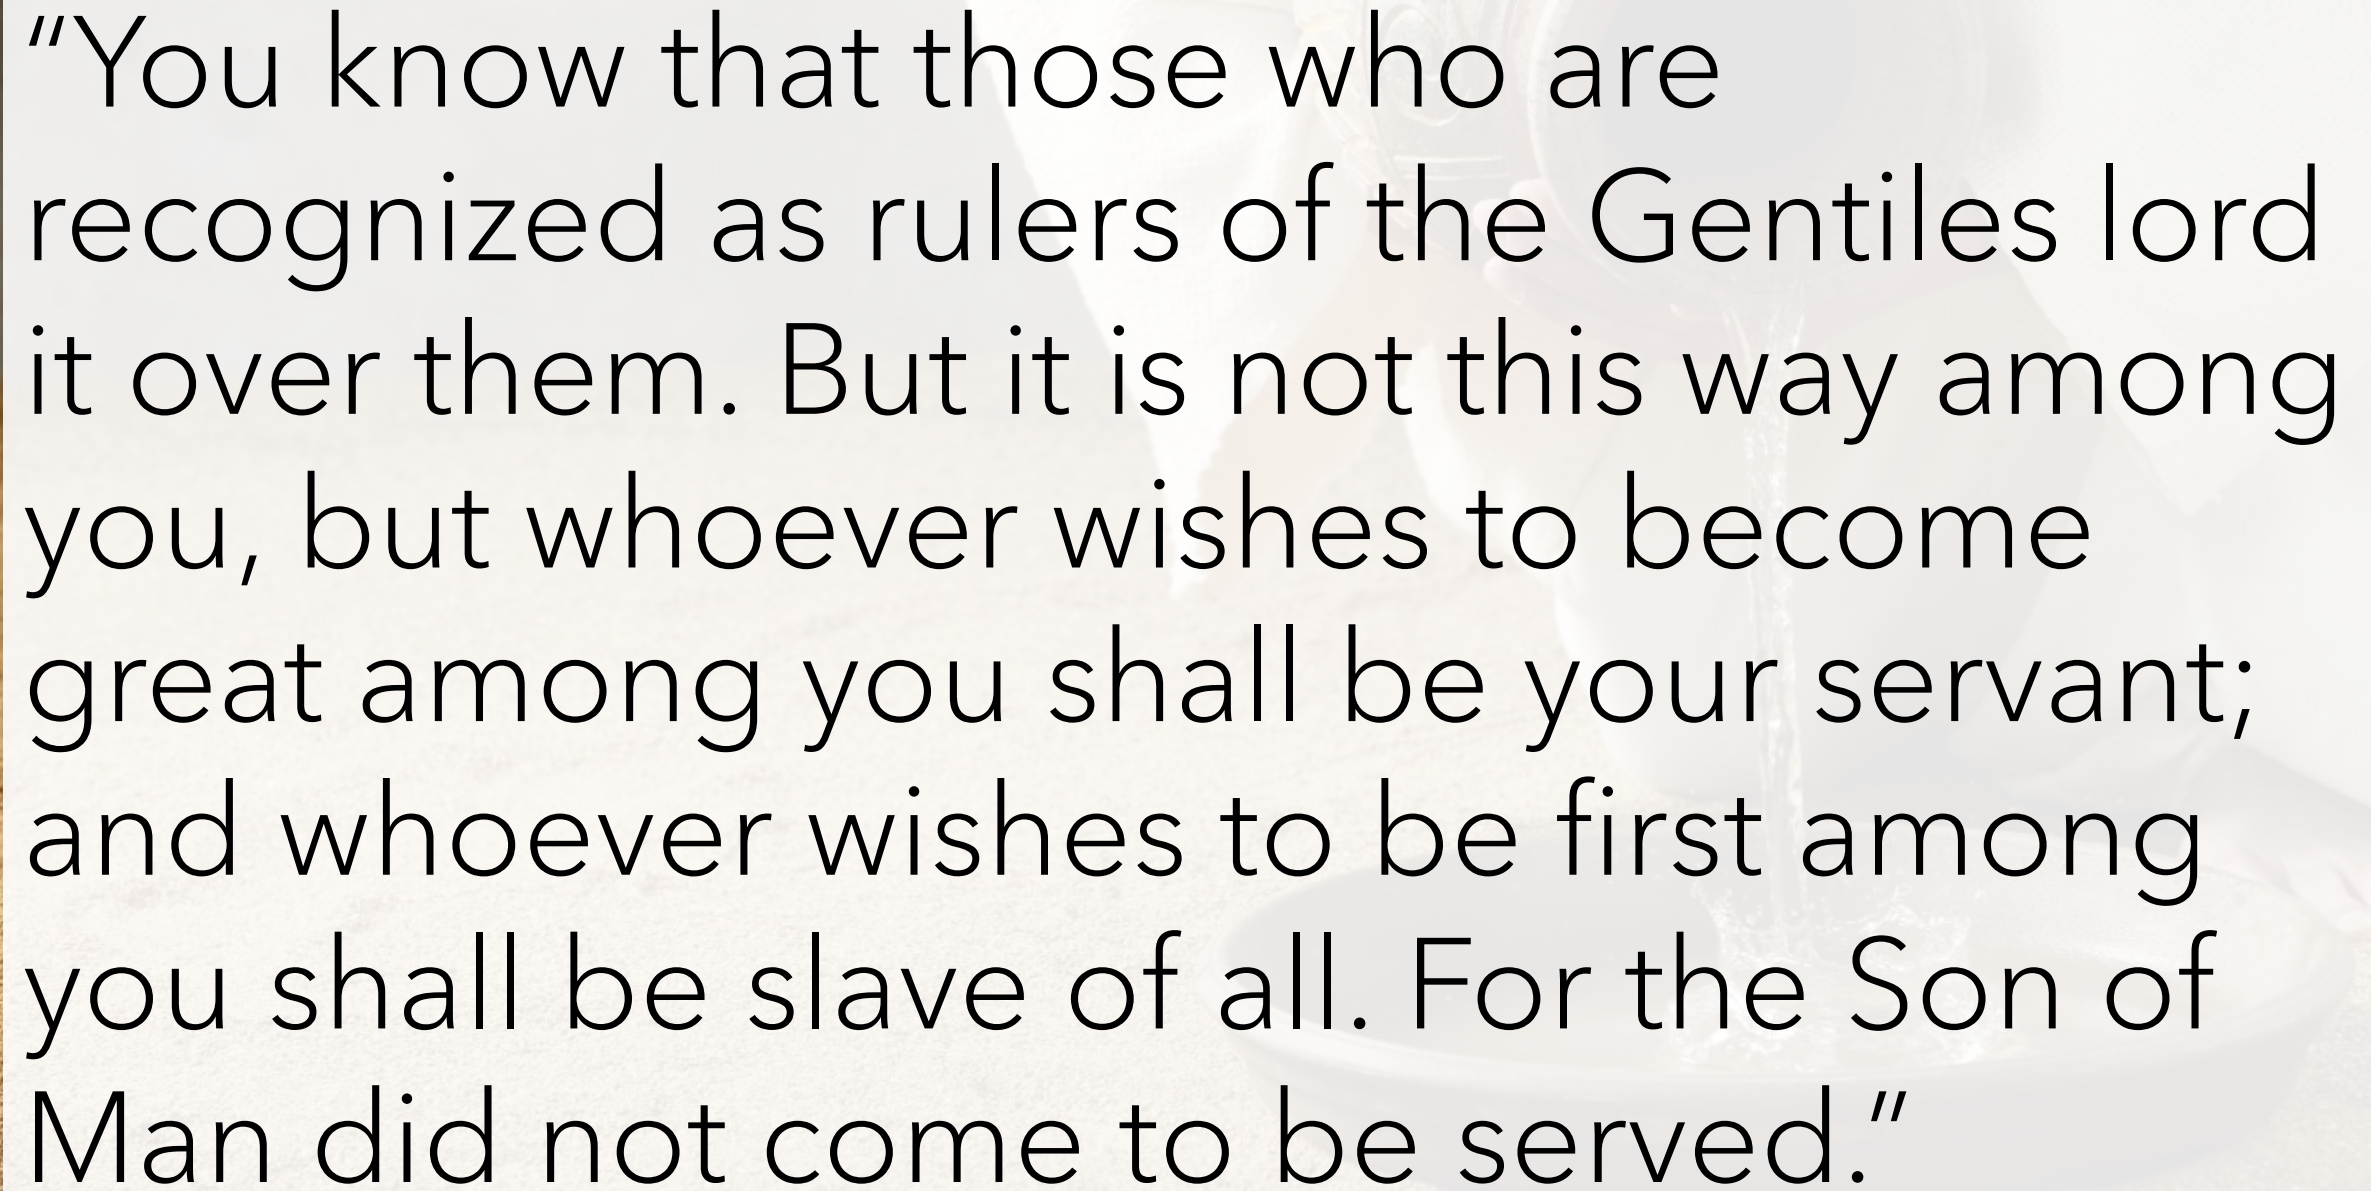

II. THE QUESTION: What effect will this study have on us?

“For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:45

A. Mark will teach us to believe a biblical definition of greatness.

A background image showing a person in a white robe washing another person's feet. The person being washed is lying down, and the person washing is leaning over them. The scene is set in a room with a wooden floor and a doorway in the background.

“You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them. But it is not this way among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant; and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served.”

B. In our doing, Mark will keep our faith from remaining mere theory.

A person wearing white robes is pouring water from a clay jug into a shallow clay bowl on a sandy floor. The water is splashing in the bowl. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting.

B. In our doing, Mark will keep our faith from remaining mere theory.

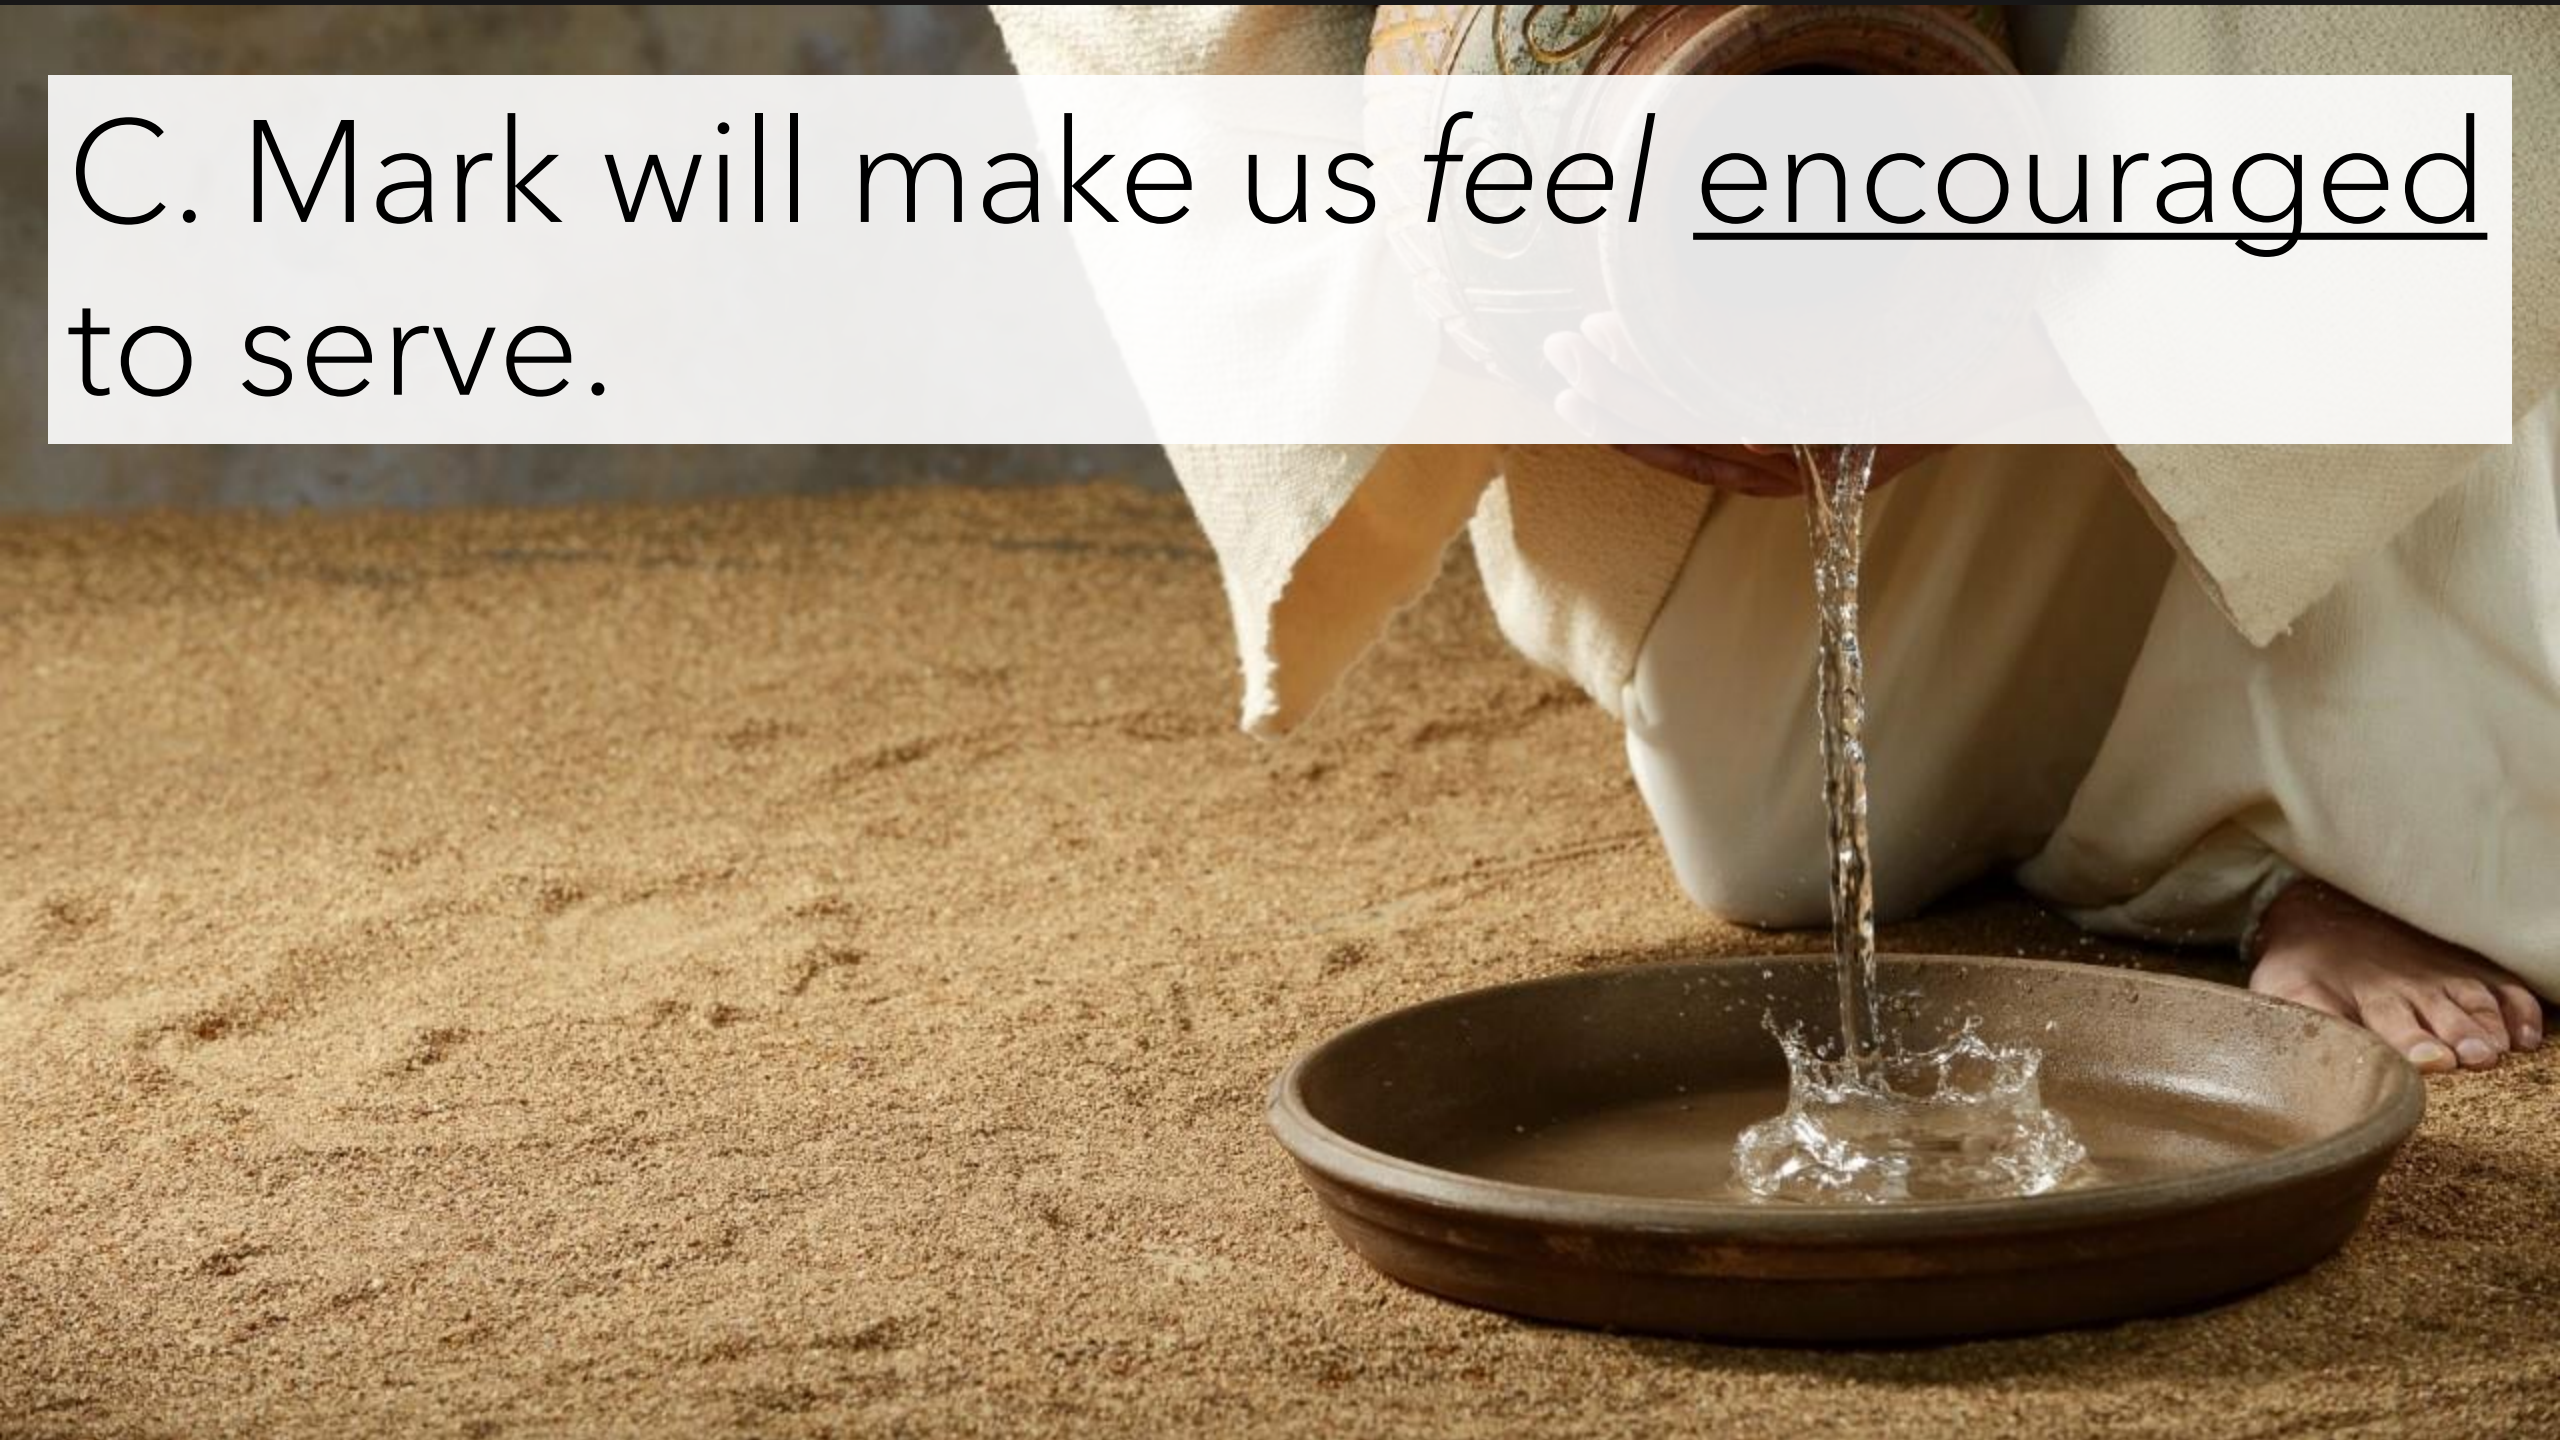

❖ Key words: immediately, follow, disciple, serve.

What can I help you with?

"He summoned the crowd with His disciples, and said to them, 'If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul?'"

C. Mark will make us feel encouraged to serve.
