I. ISOLATION THAT CAN BE GOOD FOR OUR RELATIONSHIP
WITH GOD. (VV. 35-39)

- Early morning
- Still dark
- Left and went away
- Secluded place

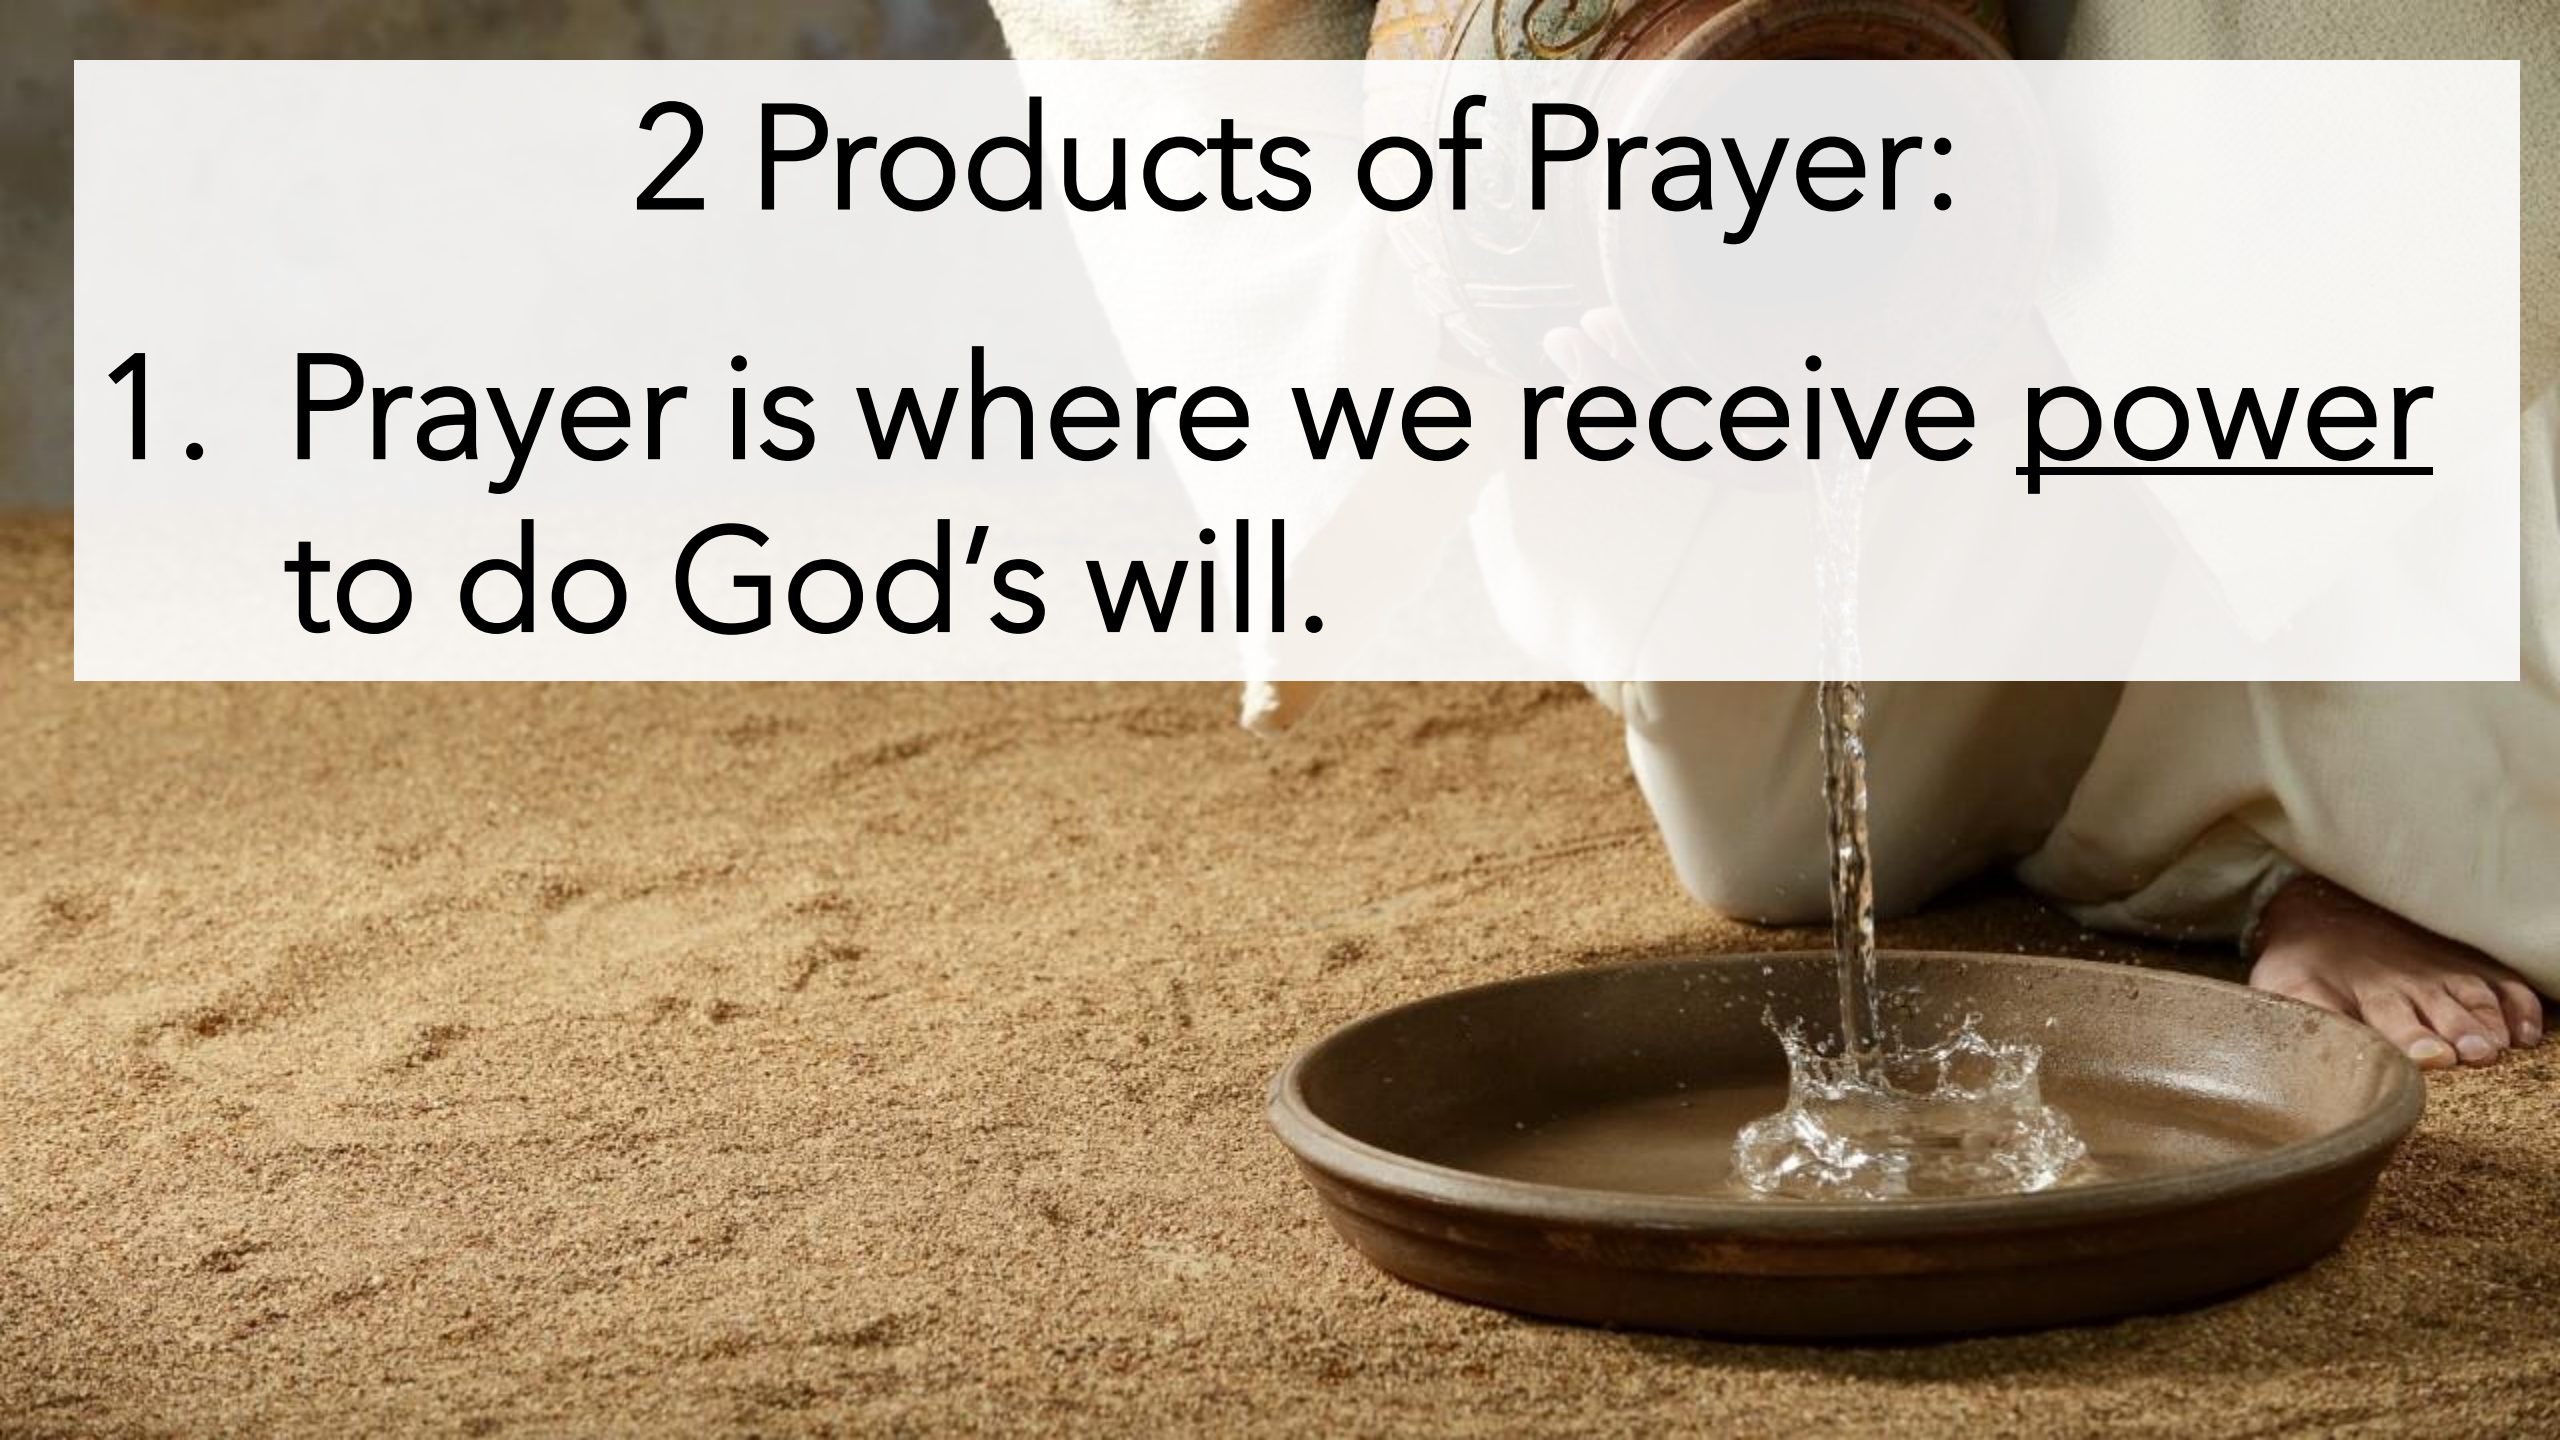

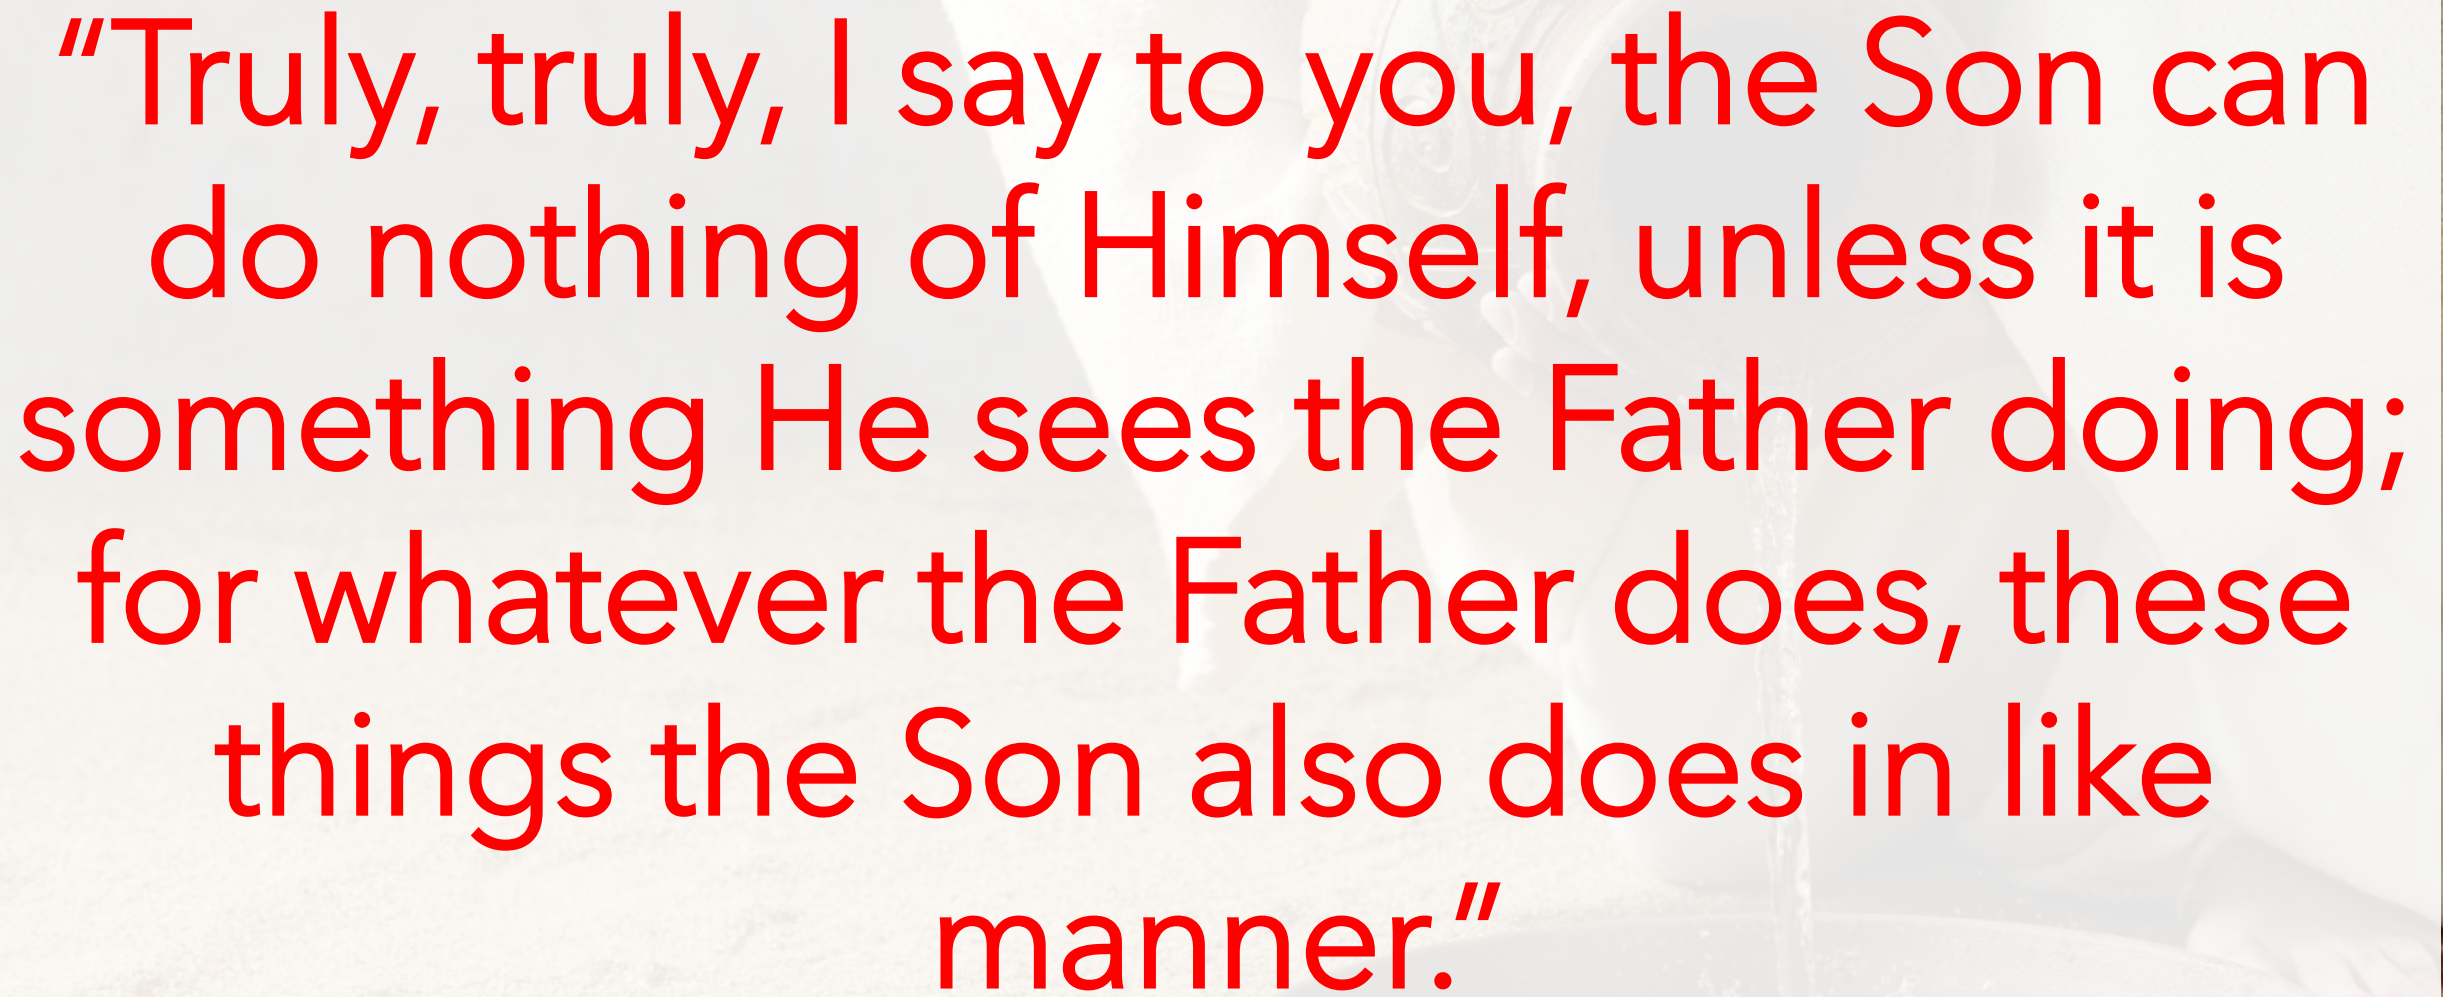

A. Christ's example shows us how important it is for us to have an intercessory prayer life.

2 Products of Prayer:

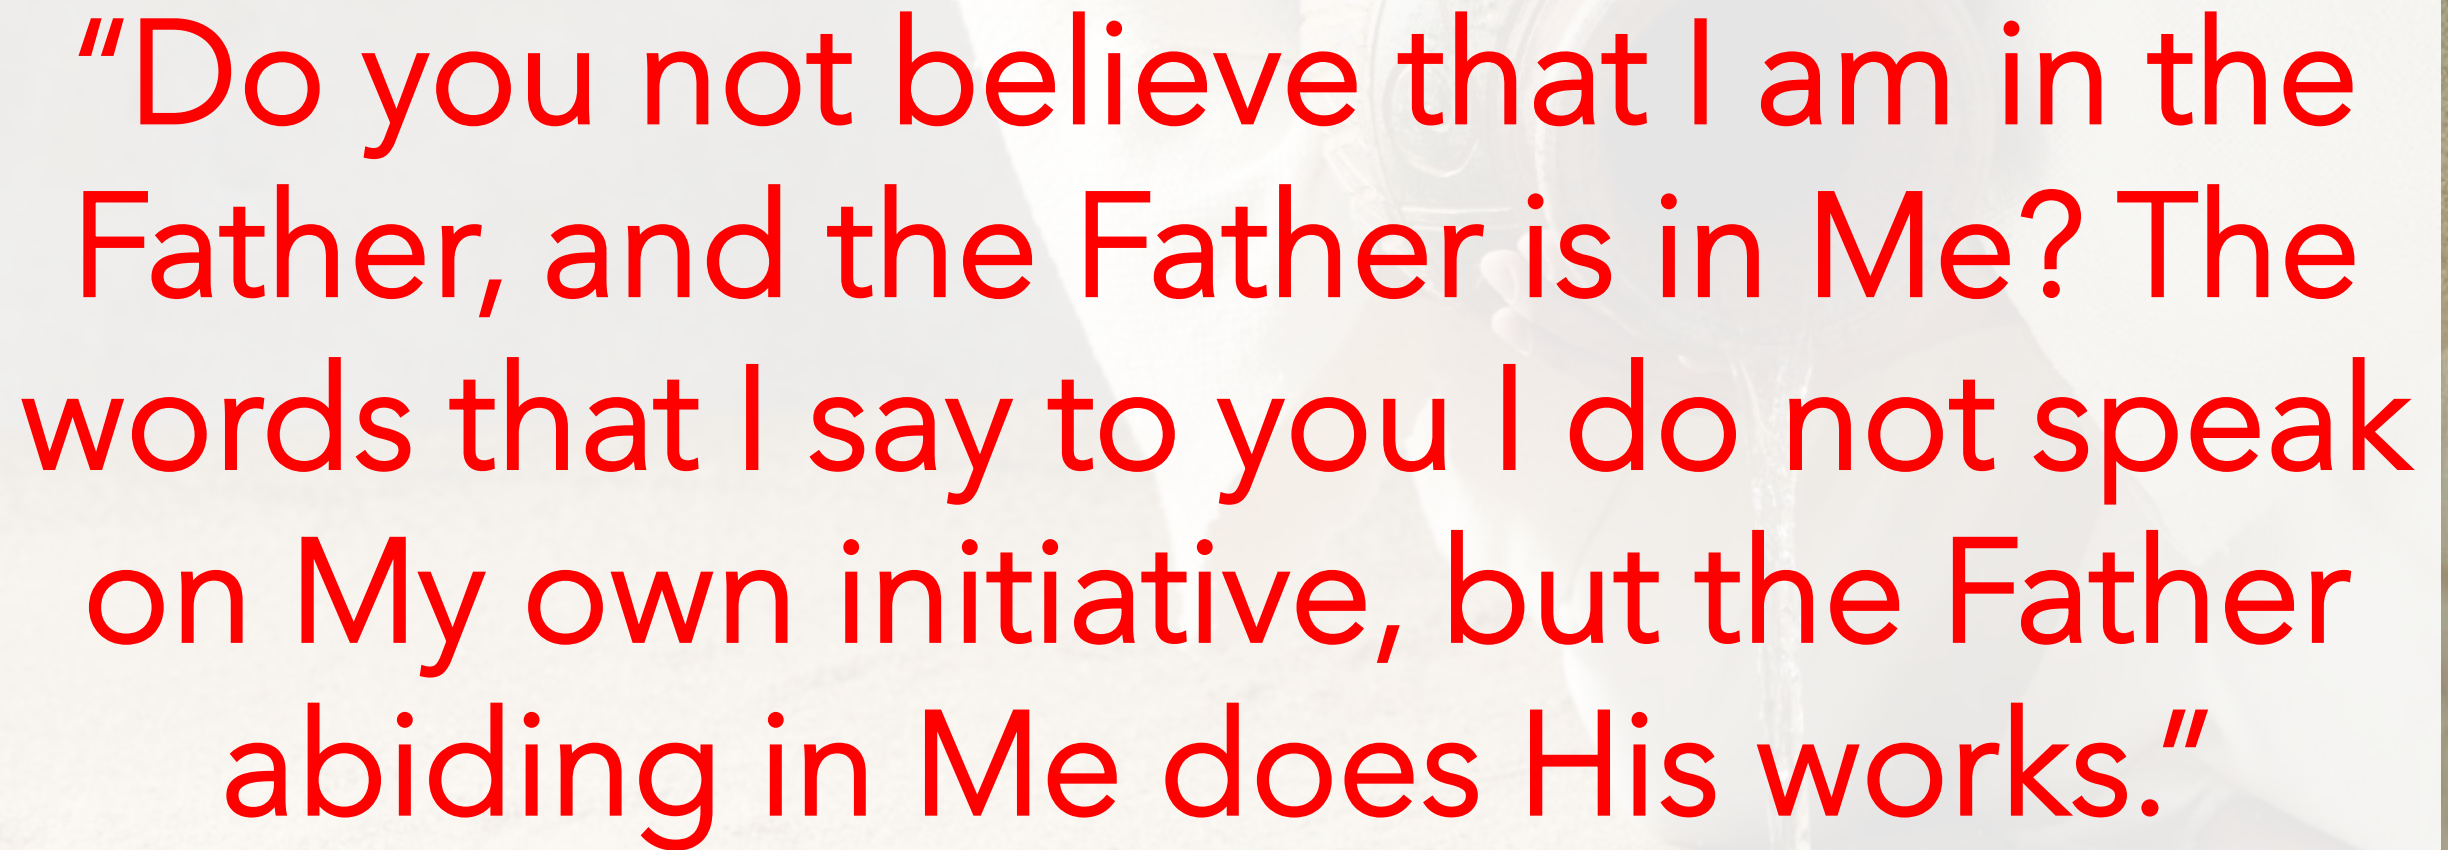

1. Prayer is where we receive power to do God's will.

A person wearing a white robe is shown from the chest down, pouring water from a large, ornate jar into a white basin. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light color.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.”

JOHN 5:19

A person wearing a white robe is shown from the waist down, pouring water from a metal pitcher into a white basin. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash. The background is a textured, light-colored surface, possibly stone or concrete.

“Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works.”

JOHN 14:10

APART
FROM ME,
YOU
CAN DO
NOTHING.
JOHN 15:5

2 Products of Prayer:

1. Prayer is where we receive power to do God's will.
2. Prayer is how we receive guidance into God's will.

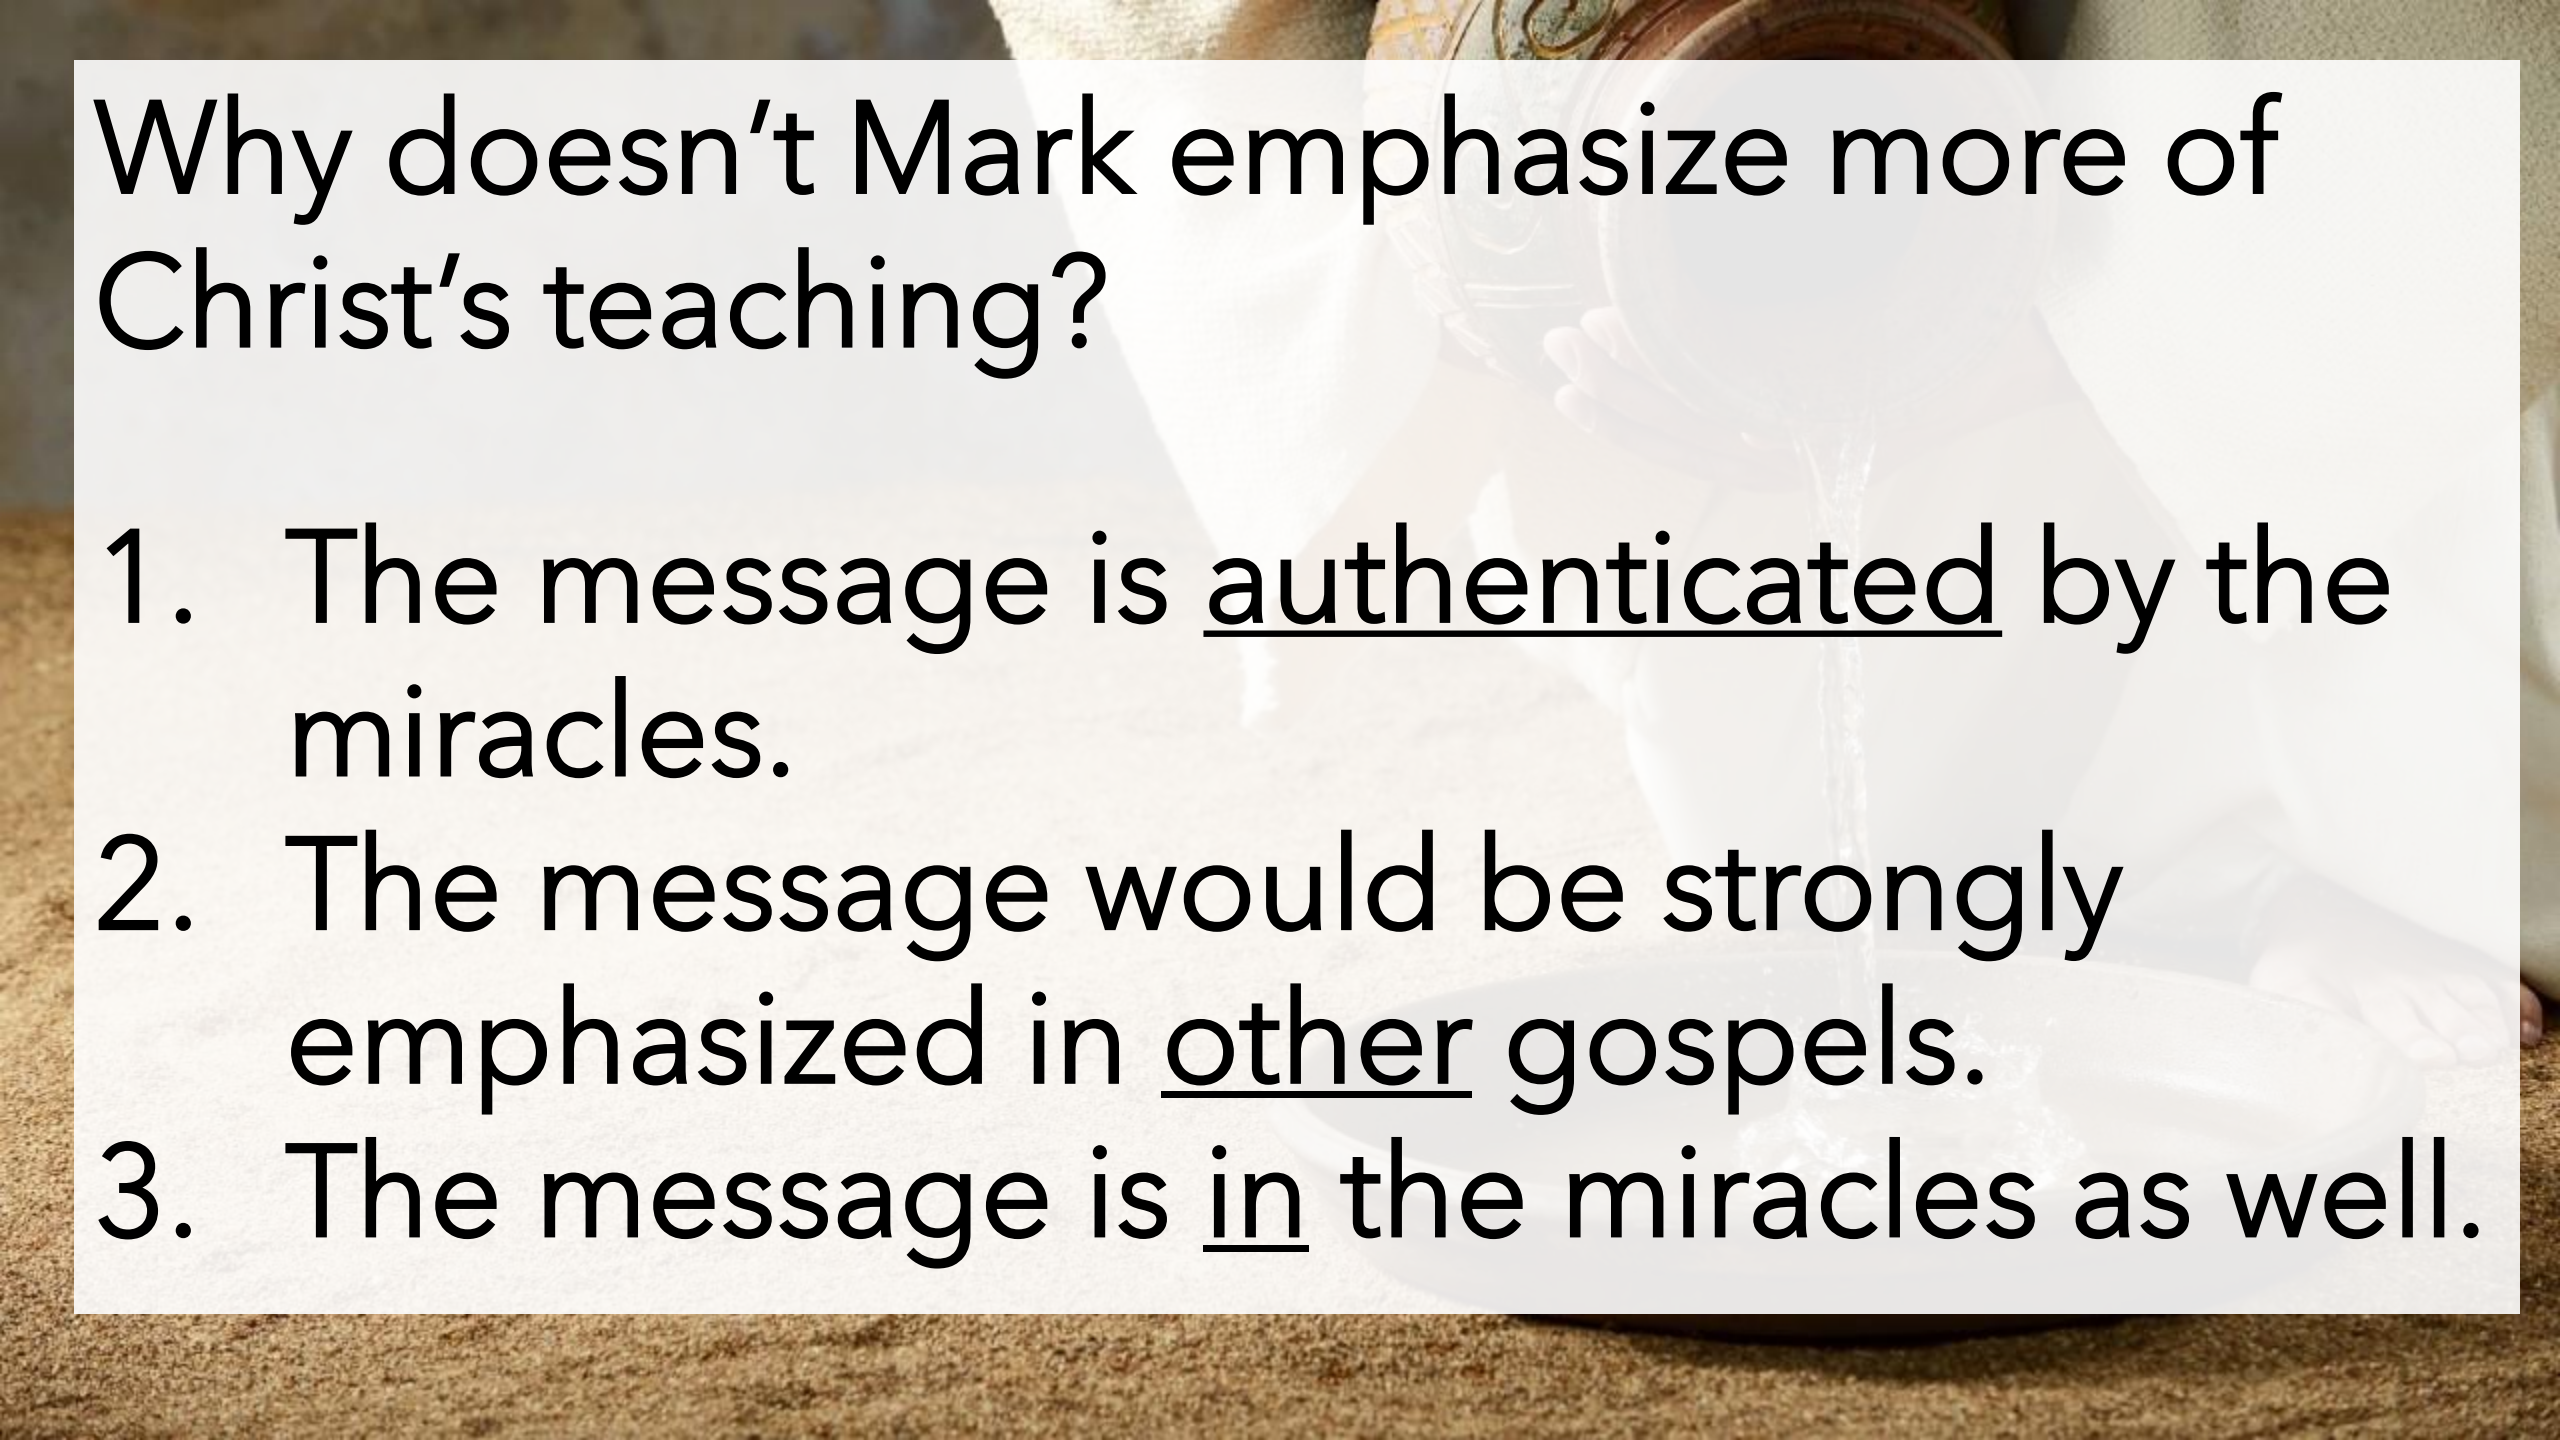

A person wearing white robes is kneeling on a sandy floor, pouring water from a large, ornate wooden vessel into a shallow, brown, earthenware bowl. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a splash in the bowl. The background is a soft-focus, light-colored wall.

❖ An abiding prayer life is how we stay on mission.

A person wearing a white robe is kneeling on a sandy floor, pouring water from a white jug into a brown bowl. The water is splashing in the bowl. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting.

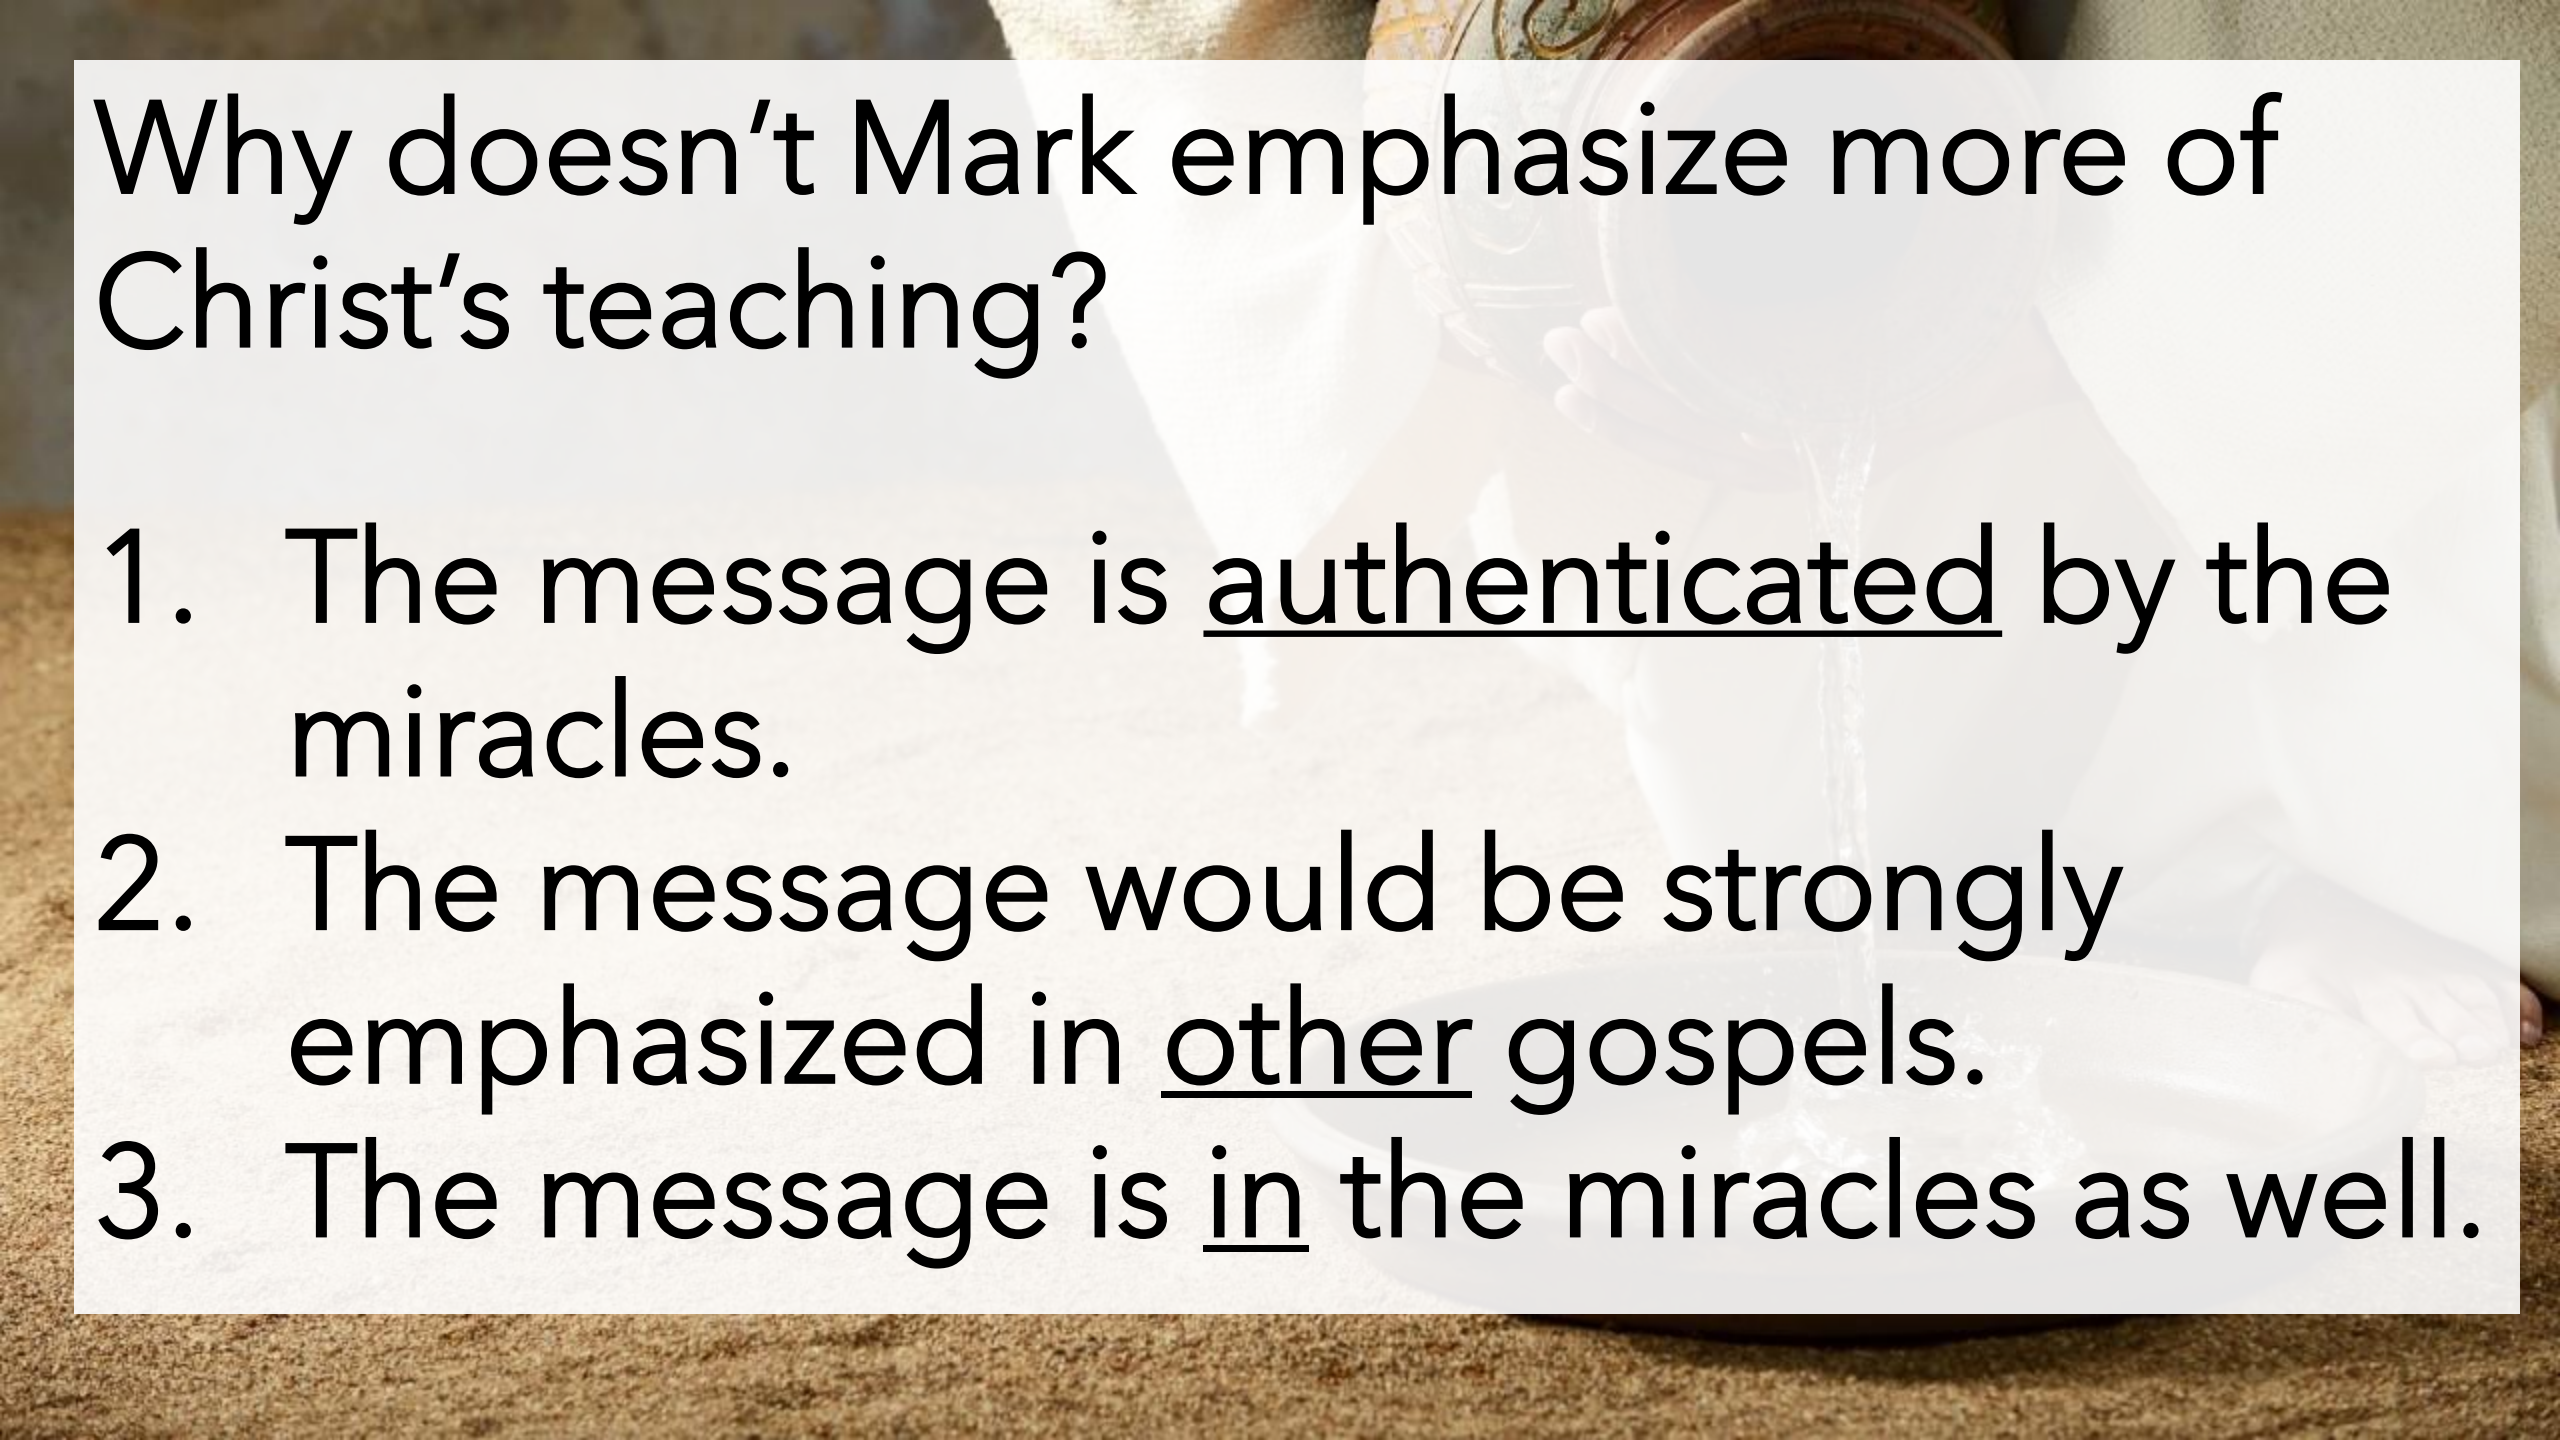

Why doesn't Mark emphasize more of Christ's teaching?

1. The message is authenticated by the miracles.

A person wearing a white robe is shown from the chest down, pouring water from a golden vessel into a brown bowl. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash. The background is a textured, light brown surface.

Why doesn't Mark emphasize more of Christ's teaching?

1. The message is authenticated by the miracles.
2. The message would be strongly emphasized in other gospels.

A person in a white robe is pouring water from a golden vessel into a white bowl. The background is a textured, brownish surface.

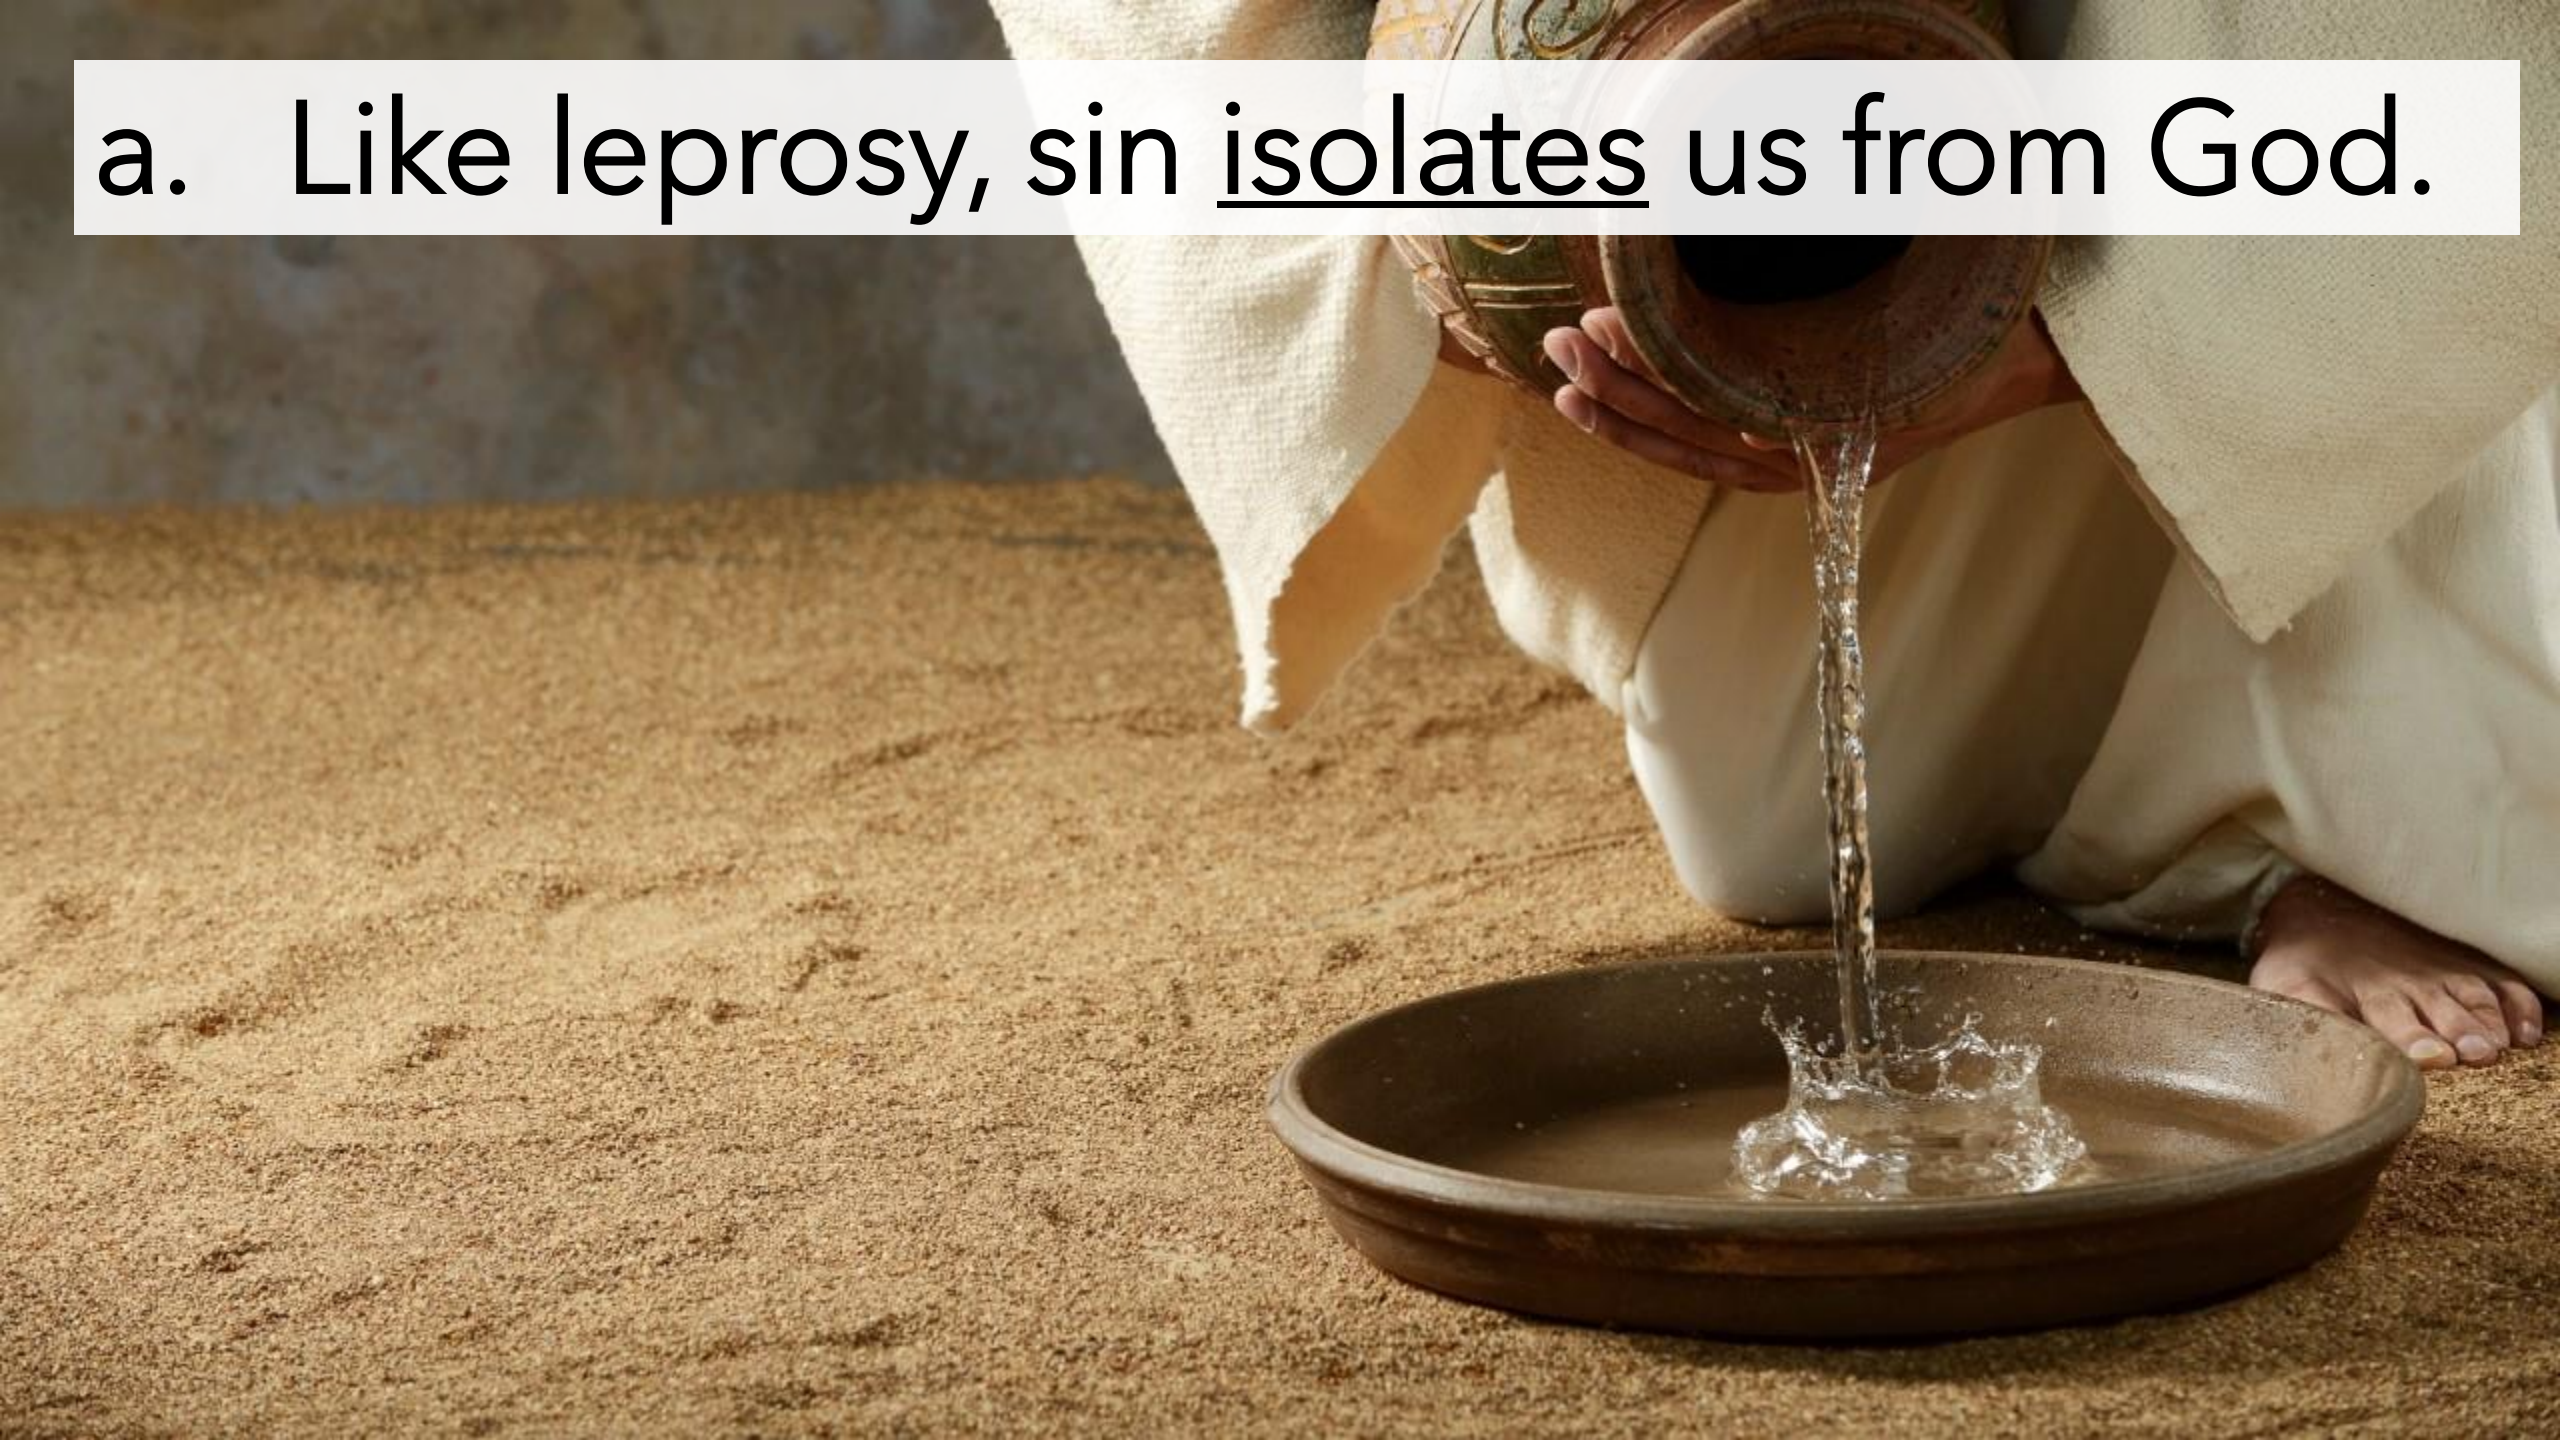

Why doesn't Mark emphasize more of Christ's teaching?

1. The message is authenticated by the miracles.
2. The message would be strongly emphasized in other gospels.
3. The message is in the miracles as well.

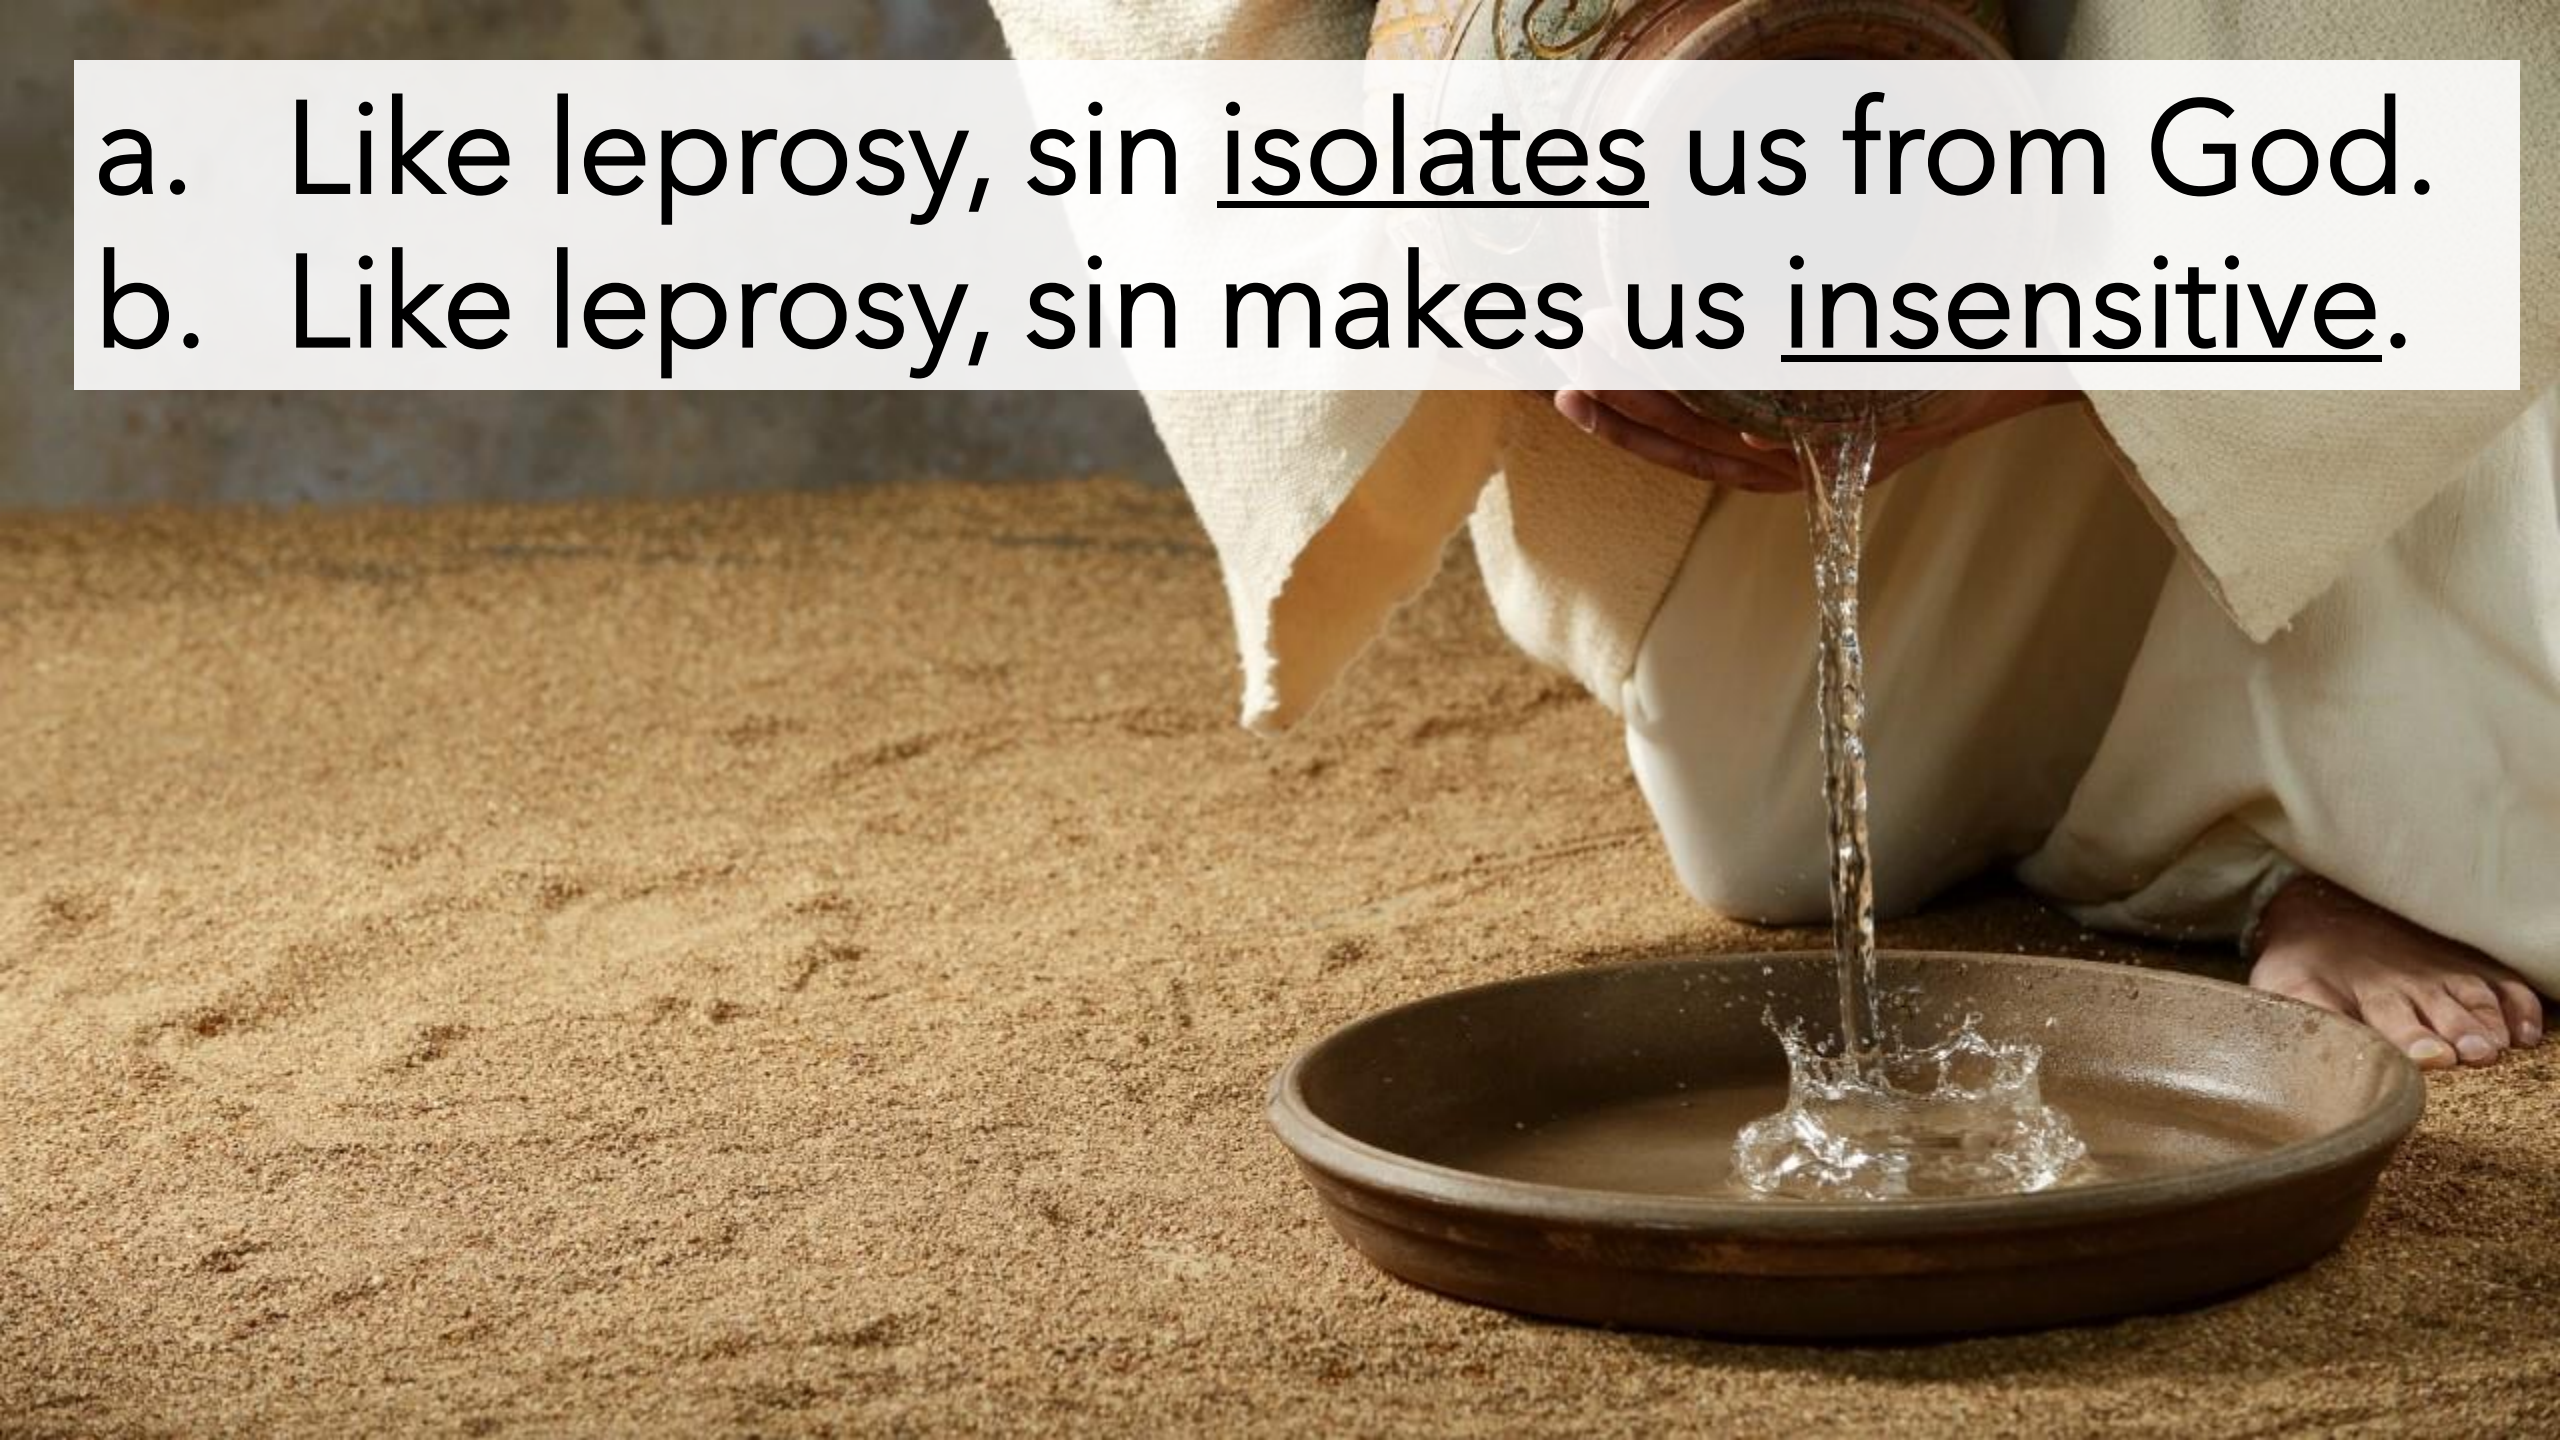

A person wearing white, textured robes is kneeling on a sandy floor. They are holding a large, decorated clay jug with both hands, pouring water into a shallow, wide clay bowl. The water is captured mid-pour, creating a splash in the bowl. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Leprosy, the “separating sickness.”

I. THE SON IS THE CURE FOR A
SINNER'S ISOLATION FROM
GOD. (VV. 40-45)

A close-up photograph of a person's hands pouring water from a traditional clay jug into a shallow, wide clay bowl. The bowl sits on a sandy surface, and the water is captured mid-pour, creating a splash. The person is wearing a light-colored, textured garment. The background is a soft-focus, light-colored wall.

❖ Let's be intentional to demonstrate the compassion of Jesus to others.

A person wearing white, textured robes is kneeling on a sandy floor. They are holding a large, dark brown earthenware jug with a wide opening, pouring a stream of clear water into a shallow, wide, brown ceramic basin. The water is splashing as it hits the basin. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
