

Hey CBC family!

Pastor Justin here. It's that time of year again! We are busy recruiting Sunday school teachers and are eager for your children to connect with each other and have fun as they learn in age-appropriate Sunday school classes. Our classes will kick off on August 20th and meet from 9:15 – 10:15. We will have classes for Preschool, K-2nd, and 3rd-5th grade children. Also, I'm excited to inform you that Ed Sydow will be facilitating a class for the young people in grades 7-12. The women's Sunday school, led by Audrey Sloan, will enjoy a study on angelology in the worship center. Larry Sloan will be walking the adults (men & women) through the Old Testament book of Jonah in room 10 downstairs. I also want to briefly remind our parents of our children's ministry vision and philosophy.

CBC Children's Ministry Vision

At CBC, we have a long-term vision desiring to see kids grow from just small sprouts to strong, mature and rooted oaks in the faith, developing their full potential for life and ministry (Ps. 1; Col. 2:6-7). We do this through a repetitive process of sowing and watering God's Word as we pray and trust God who causes the growth (1 Cor. 3:6).

CBC Children's Ministry Philosophy

Our children's ministry philosophy and curriculum are based on Deuteronomy 6:5-9 with the understanding that parents are to be the primary disciplers of their children.

"You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength. And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today. Repeat them again and again to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates."

D6 EveryDay Curriculum cultivates generational disciple makers to live out what they learn. A strong partnership between church and home is one of the greatest ways to influence biblical thinking in our culture. Historically it hasn't been hard to help kids understand WHAT they believe and think about the Bible, but often young people walk away from their faith because they never understood the WHY behind what they believe. D6 EveryDay Curriculum presents both the WHAT and the WHY to help inspire stronger disciples who not only know the Word of God but also understand how to discern truth in every aspect of life.

D6 EveryDay Curriculum works seamlessly with traditional Sunday School, but with the added bonus of having the entire family aligned on the same biblical theme each week. This provides greater emphasis on application and response to the principles of the lesson throughout the week, and parents are better equipped to be involved in the discipleship of their children. Ministry leaders and teachers continue to view Randall House and D6 Family as the leading publisher of generational discipleship curriculum. D6 Curriculum, which began in 2004 as the first family aligned curriculum with real depth, continues to win national awards annually for content and design. D6 continues to highlight not only the story of the Bible but also the reason "why" it is important.
